BUSINESS RELATIONS BIBILIOGRAPHY SERIES

IV. Corporate Social Responsibility

This bibliography was prepared by the Business Relations Program of the Consumer Services Branch of Consumer and Corporate Affairs Canada. The Business Relations Program is concerned with helping to ensure that consumer needs are met, by working with and through business in ways which contribute to the requirements of business. It is intended therefore, that the following suggested readings will supplement your organization's resource material in the subject area of corporate social responsibility.

Rather than provide an all-inclusive resource guide, this collection consists primarily of timely, topical articles and research reports. The entries are organized alphabetically according to author; or, in the case of anonymous works, by title.

Each listing documented herein may be obtained through your public local library, or through inter-library loan.

It is hoped that this bibliography will prove helpful and informative. If you have any suggestions regarding improvement or modification, or should any questions arise concerning the material, please do not hesitate to contact us at:
