

QUICK FACTS

Speakers Bureau

The Speakers Bureau is a free service provided by the Correctional Service of Canada (CSC).

CSC's Speakers Bureau connects communities, schools and organizations with dynamic public speakers who have broad experience in the correctional system.

Why use the Speakers Bureau?

Inviting a speaker gives citizens the chance to learn about public safety and correctional issues including:

- incarceration
- community reintegration
- volunteering
- restorative justice
- victim services

Speakers

All speakers are knowledgeable about the federal correctional system in Canada and have first-hand experience in areas that affect offenders.

For more information

For more information on the Speakers Bureau, visit the Resources section of our website at www.csc-scc.gc.ca.

Updated December 2018