

Welcome

Gulf Islands National Park Reserve protects a portion of the Strait of Georgia lowlands natural region and is part of the homeland of the Coast Salish First Nations, who have cared for the land and sea since time immemorial.

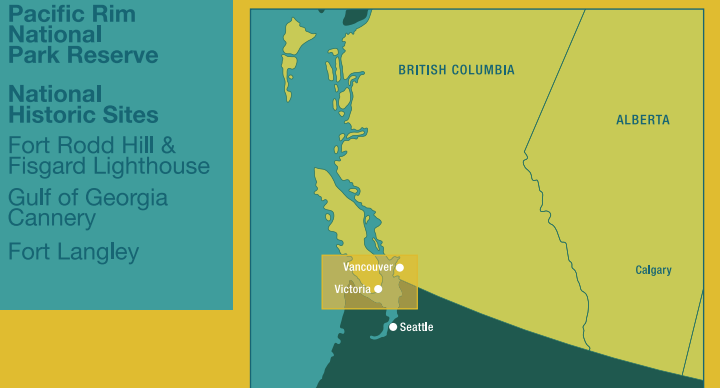

Breathe in the fresh ocean air. Feel the warm, west coast sun on your face. Feast your eyes on the beautiful islands surrounding you. Spot a whale. Fall asleep to the sound of the waves. Learn about nature with a park interpreter. Experience firsthand the distinct culture and lifestyle of each Gulf Island!

Boating + Kayaking

Float your boat at one of Canada's premier boating destinations. Dig in your paddle as eagles soar overhead. Drop anchor at Russell Island and hike to a historic Hawaiian Homestead. You'll be greeted by sheltered waters, sandy coves, and unbelievable views.

Discover spectacular coastlines around every corner. Spot seals, sea lions and porpoises. If you are lucky you may even come home with stories of sighting a pod of killer whales.

Hiking

From easy shoreline trails to invigorating shore-to-sky mountain climbs, Gulf Islands National Park Reserve has walks and hikes for all energy levels. Stroll barefoot along the sandy beaches for hours. Let your feet carry you to mossy waterfalls, salt marshes and jaw-dropping ocean views. Along the way, happen upon history: ancient sea gardens being actively tended, heritage orchards, former cottages, and Hawaiian homesteads.

Frontcountry Campgrounds

SMONECTEN, Prior Centennial and Sidney Spit
Easy access, spectacular scenery, and the ability to book your campsite in advance make a vacation to one of our frontcountry campgrounds a dream come true. Detailed descriptions of each location accompany the park map inside this brochure. When planning a trip please note that SMONECTEN and Prior Centennial campgrounds offer potable water, garbage disposal, and fire rings. Sidney Spit Campground has no water, no garbage facilities (pack-in pack-out), and does not allow campfires at any time of year.

Campground Information

- Pets must be kept on leash at all times and their waste removed.
- Alcohol consumption is only permitted on a registered campsite.
- Cannabis consumption is prohibited in all frontcountry campground common areas (washrooms, kitchen shelters, campsite trails, and roads).
- Fire restrictions: campfires, briquette-fueled barbecues and portable campfire apparatuses are prohibited at Sidney Spit, at all backcountry campgrounds, and at all day use areas (including below the high tide mark).
- Maximum length of stay is 14 days per year.
- Maximum group size per campsite:
 - Frontcountry 6 adults (or 7 people including children);
 - Backcountry 5 people.

Discovery

Let us awaken your family's sense of wonder this summer. Discover the magic and history of the world around you with help from a park interpreter. Weekly offerings in July and August include family campfires, craft stations and cultural presentations. Look for the event calendar on our website for full details.

Prefer to go at your own pace? Search for geocaches using your GPS enabled device. For the perfect kids' adventure, pick up a copy of our Xplorers booklet and complete the challenges to earn a prize!

Outreach

Learn fun facts and enjoy conversations and short presentations about BC's coastal wildlife, marine life, culture, history, geography and Parks Canada's incredible places through our partners.

Find us this summer hosting programs at The Shaw Centre for the Salish Sea in Sidney. Visit our website for a list of summer programs.

Backcountry Campgrounds

D'Arcy, Isle-de-Lis (Rum), Princess Margaret (Portland), Pender, Prevost, Saturna and Cabbage islands

Hike, bike, or paddle your way to one of our rejuvenating backcountry getaways. These rustic locations require you to bring your own drinking water, and to pack-in pack-out (no garbage facilities available).

Reservations are recommended at:

- Shingle Bay Campground, North Pender Island
- Narvaez Bay Campground, Saturna Island

All other open backcountry campgrounds are first-come first-served. Consult the kiosk upon arrival for registration info.

Coast Salish Traditions

Coast Salish First Nations have lived in this region for thousands of years and their knowledge, culture, and oral history have been passed from generation to generation. Since time immemorial, the land and sea have nourished and sustained First Nations communities and their ties to the natural world can be seen in all aspects of their culture.

Discover these connections first-hand by participating in a Coast Salish Traditions activity this summer! Find full details on our online event calendar.

Hiking, Camping and Boating Guide

A Prevost Island

James Bay Campground is only accessible by water, and is popular with kayakers. There are no tent pads in this open field style camping area. 10 backcountry campsites.

B Russell Island

Haumea Trail Easy 1.2 km 30-minute loop. This island is steeped in rich history. Coast Salish clam gardens have been used here for at least 1000 years. A spur off the main loop trail leads to one of the last surviving Hawaiian homesteads in the region. The historic Mahoi house dates back over a century.

C Princess Margaret (Portland Island)

Arbutus Point Campground 6 backcountry sites, Shell Beach Campground 6 backcountry sites, and Princess Bay Campground 12 backcountry sites (ideal for groups), offer opportunities to camp on all sides of Portland Island.

A shoreline loop allows you to hike around the entire island and enjoy spectacular views. Shorter trails cut across the interior of the island.

Princess Margaret Perimeter Trail Moderate 6.5 km three hour loop.

Royal Cove Trail Moderate 1.4 km

Kanaka Bluffs Trail Moderate 0.8 km

Pellow Islets Trail Moderate 0.7 km

D SMOŃĖTEN Campground (Sidney)

SMOŃĖTEN Campground Park your RV or pitch your tent in a campsite surrounded by tall cedars. Only 25 minutes from Victoria, SMOŃĖTEN Campground makes a perfect basecamp for exploring the Gulf Islands and the Greater Victoria area. 49 sites, with a mix of RV, tent, and walk-in sites. Reservations recommended.

Cycling There is easy access to beautiful walk-in campsites and the Lochside Regional cycling trail which connects the campground to Victoria and the Swartz Bay ferry terminal.

E Sidney Spit

Spend a day on car-free Sidney Island. Hop on the passenger ferry at Sidney Pier and soon you'll be kicking off your shoes and exploring kilometres of warm sandy beaches. Looking for a boater's paradise? Tie up to our Sidney Spit dock or mooring buoys for an overnight stay and treat yourself to a spectacular sunset.

Sidney Spit Campground 29 tent sites. Reservations recommended. No water available. Pack in water.

Boating Facilities First-come first-served mooring buoys and dock space. Fees apply daily after 3 p.m.

SKŃĖMEN (sk-thay-men) Trail Easy 2.1 km loop from the main dock to the campground and then returning along the eastern coast.

Lagoon Trail Easy 1.8 km spur off SKŃĖMEN Trail to lagoon (3.6 km total).

F Isle-de-Lis (Rum Island)

Isle-de-Lis Campground This small island features coastal bluffs, a Douglas fir and arbutus forest, and vegetation that reflects the warm Mediterranean-like climate of the southern Gulf Islands. 3 backcountry campsites.

G D'Arcy Island

D'Arcy Island Campground With numerous coves, cobble beaches and a forest of arbutus and Douglas fir, D'Arcy Island's beauty belies its past history as a leper colony for Chinese immigrants in the late 1800s and early 1900s. 7 backcountry campsites.

H Mayne Island

Brush up on your birding skills at Georgina Point — an Important Bird Area overlooking Active Pass. Use the high powered viewscope to get a closer look at harlequin ducks and black oystercatchers.

Campbell Point Trail Easy 750 m each way. Campbell Point features remnant old-growth forest. A wide and relatively flat trail brings you to superb views from the point across to Georgeson Island.
