Knowledge Exchange for Innovation in Canada's Forest Sector

The Canadian Institute of Forestry (CIF) serves as the voice of foresters in Canada. The organization represents professionals with an interest in forests and forestry, such as ecologists, forest technicians and educators. The CIF's mission is to provide national leadership in forestry, promote competency among forestry professionals and foster public awareness of Canadian and international forestry issues.

In collaboration with various partners, the Canadian Institute of Forestry developed, promoted and delivered two virtual forums for forestry professionals. The forums focused on knowledge transfer and building relationships between technology creators, decision-makers and end users. The main goal of the forums was to foster resilience in Canada's forest and natural resource sectors. They provided forest professionals and practitioners with an opportunity for continued education and professional development.
