Section I: Introduction

The Parliament of Canada's international and interparliamentary relations are carried out, in part, through parliamentary associations.

As of March 31, 2022, there are 12 parliamentary associations, plus the Canadian Delegation to the OSCE Parliamentary Assembly which falls under the Canada-Europe Parliamentary Association, that receive funding from the Parliament of Canada and are under the administrative authority of the Joint Interparliamentary Council. These associations also receive full administrative support from the International and Interparliamentary Affairs Directorate.

The purpose of this report is to provide an overview of parliamentary associations and their activities and expenditures for the 2021-2022 fiscal year. This section of the report provides information about parliamentary associations, their governance and the support they receive. Section II provides a general overview of association activities and expenditures for the fiscal year, whereas Section III provides more detailed information and data for each association for that same period.

We hope this report will provide helpful information on the activities of parliamentary associations and lead to a better understanding of the work of parliamentarians at the international level. For any additional information about this report or parliamentary associations, please contact the Joint Interparliamentary Council, at JIC-CIM@parl.gc.ca.

Parliamentary Associations and Interparliamentary Groups

As mentioned on the previous page, parliamentary associations¹ receive funding from the Parliament of Canada, fall under the administrative authority of the Joint Interparliamentary Council and receive full administrative assistance from the International and Interparliamentary Affairs Directorate. Though their activities and objectives may vary, the associations share similar characteristics:

- they promote Canada’s interests abroad on an ongoing basis;
- they operate on multilateral and bilateral levels;
- they are composed of members of the Senate and of the House of Commons;
- they meet at annual general meetings where they elect their executive committees, as well as at other meetings to coordinate and direct activities with their bilateral counterparts or with the international secretariats of the multilateral organizations to which they belong.

As of March 31, 2022, there are 12 associations, plus the Canadian Delegation to the OSCE Parliamentary Assembly which falls under the Canada-Europe Parliamentary Association. These multilateral or bilateral associations, which can be found in Table 1 on the next page, may be grouped into five geographical regions: global, Europe, Americas, Asia-Pacific and Africa.

The Parliament of Canada has also recognized four interparliamentary groups², as found in Table 1, to help promote bilateral relations with the specific country to which they are related. These groups receive no funding from Parliament and minimal administrative assistance. This assistance is generally limited to administrative and procedural support for annual general meetings, maintaining the group’s constitution and collecting related membership fees. The interparliamentary groups promote cooperation and understanding amongst nations and, like parliamentary associations, strengthen the relations between Canadian parliamentarians and their counterparts in other Parliaments. Membership fees from individual parliamentarians support the activities of these groups. Given the nature of these groups, this report does not provide information about their activities and expenditures.

In addition to the parliamentary associations and the four recognized interparliamentary groups, there are a number of other groups, often referred to as “friendship groups” that do not receive administrative or financial support from the Parliament of Canada. These groups are not required to register their activities or membership with the Council, but they are encouraged to advise the International and Interparliamentary Affairs Directorate of their establishment in order to assist those who might wish to contact them. For more information about these groups, please consult the Parliamentary Diplomacy Canada Website.

¹Although the summary of information about the activities of the associations can be found in Section III of this report, a detailed description of the structure, activities and objectives of each association is available at <http://www.parl.ca/diplomacy>.

²For a detailed description of the structure, activities and objectives of each group, please visit the website at <https://www.parl.ca/diplomacy/en/groups>.

Joint Interparliamentary Council

The Joint Interparliamentary Council \(ICCI\) is responsible for determining all budgetary and administrative matters relating to parliamentary associations. Specifically, the Council determines the level of funding to be distributed to each association within the limits of the total allotments approved by the Senate Standing Committee on Internal Economy, Budgets and Administration and the House of Commons Board of Internal Economy. In addition, the Council is also responsible for setting the overall general policy direction for parliamentary associations, as well as for coordinating related activities and operating policies to ensure effective, efficient, consistent and coherent support for international and interparliamentary activities while also promoting the best interests of the Parliament of Canada in its relations with other parliaments.

During this fiscal year, the Council met to discuss ongoing public health measures in relation to the COVID-19 pandemic and their impact on the work of parliamentary associations. Consequently, on five occasions the Council extended the moratorium on all International and Interparliamentary Affairs supported international travel and incoming delegations. On March 9, 2022, the Council agreed to lift the moratorium as of April 1, 2022. In light of the limited internal capacity to support virtual meetings, the Council instructed only associations with a vacancy in a chair or co-chair position to hold virtual annual general meetings to elect new executive committees and extended the terms of the executives of the other associations by one year. The Council also approved a request to allow the Parliament of Canada to organize the 31st Annual Session of the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe Parliamentary Assembly in Vancouver, in July 2023. Lastly, the Council struck a subcommittee to review the structure, governance, and financial administration of parliamentary associations, with a reporting deadline of October 31, 2022.

Supporting Parliamentary Associations

The International and Interparliamentary Affairs Directorate (IIA) is a joint Senate-House of Commons directorate offering a single parliamentary team to coordinate the Parliament of Canada's international and interparliamentary relations and activities. The Parliamentary Associations staff are responsible for the ongoing administrative, logistical and procedural support for each association.

The Library of Parliament offers support through analysts who provide research and analysis services to associations. Finally, the Parliamentary Affairs Unit, Global Affairs Canada, is a close partner that provides support for official travel by parliamentarians, parliamentary associations and interparliamentary groups and friendship groups through documents, information sessions and coordination efforts with Canadian missions abroad.

Section II: 2021-2022 Activities and Expenditures – Overview

This section includes tables that present information related to the activities and expenditures of all parliamentary associations for the 2021-2022 fiscal year. As in the previous fiscal year, the COVID-19 pandemic continued to impact the functioning of parliamentary associations.

The work of parliamentary associations was mainly carried out in the virtual realm. Webinars, online workshops, virtual conferences and assemblies, and videoconference calls continued to be the norm.

While many multilateral parliamentary associations were able to benefit from the resources of their international counterparts to allow them to participate in activities, most bilateral associations struggled to access the resources necessary to meet on a regular basis.

Indeed, all associations continued to contend with resource constraints, as there were only so many virtual meetings that could be held at one time within the Parliamentary Precinct. Nevertheless, associations organized and coordinated various events and activities with international colleagues, ambassadors, and other relevant stakeholders throughout the year, furthering the important work of international parliamentary diplomacy.

Table 1 below provides an overview of the activities of parliamentary associations for the 2021-2022 fiscal year.

¹ 3 Executive committee meetings in 2021-2022 were held in hybrid format.

Table 2 below shows a summary of the expenditures of all parliamentary associations for the past five years. For the 2021-2022 fiscal year, parliamentary associations had a budget of $4,300,496 which reflects the same amount as the 2020-2021 fiscal year. The contribution expenditures of $1,472,878 show a decrease of $37,142 over the previous fiscal year. As many invoices are received in foreign currency, expenditures for contributions can vary based on fluctuating exchange rates. The membership fees assessed to Canada for multilateral associations have generally remained the same as the previous fiscal year. Total expenditures by parliamentary associations remained at the same level in comparison to the previous fiscal year mainly due to the ongoing impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. Total expenditures for parliamentary associations represent 34% of the available funding resulting in a balance of $2,840,835 at the end of the year.

Section III: Activities and Expenditures by Parliamentary Association

Canada-Africa Parliamentary Association (CAAF)

Objectives

The purpose of the Canada-Africa Parliamentary Association (CAAF) is to encourage exchanges between African and Canadian parliamentarians, to enhance Canadian parliamentarians' understanding of important issues and serious challenges facing the African continent, to propose initiatives to increase the understanding of bilateral and multilateral issues, and to foster cooperation in all areas of undertaking.

2021-2022 Activities and Expenditures

Health restrictions on Parliament Hill, virtual resource issues, and the extension of the moratorium on all International and Interparliamentary Affairs-supported international travel and incoming delegations affected the association’s ability to conduct business in 2021-2022. Executive committee members met virtually in April 2021. They discussed current affairs in Kenya with the Chargé d’affaires and a Minister representing the Kenya High Commission in Canada, met with the President of the Canada-Africa Chamber of Business and the Chair of its Board of Directors and discussed the organization’s mission and activities in Canada and Africa. They also heard a presentation from the President of the Kigali Council on Foreign Relations about the organization, its mandate, activities, and interest in Canada, as well as its role in Africa and other regions of the world regarding current major international issues. A virtual AGM was also held in February 2022.

Canada-Europe Parliamentary Association (CAEU)

Objectives

The aim of the Canada-Europe Parliamentary Association (CAEU) is to provide a structured forum for the exchange of information and ideas between Canadian parliamentarians and parliamentarians from the European Parliament, the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe, the Western European Union Assembly, and similar European parliamentary organizations, such as the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe Parliamentary Assembly (OSCE PA) and the Conference of Parliamentarians of the Arctic Region. The Association also seeks to strengthen ties between the Parliament of Canada and the individual parliaments of all countries of Europe.

2021-2022 Activities and Expenditures

During the fiscal year of 2021-2022, the Canada-Europe Parliamentary Association (CAEU) continued to participate regularly in activities by videoconference.

CAEU members have been participating as observers in the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe (PACE) since 2004. During this fiscal year, CAEU was actively involved in hybrid meetings of the Ordinary Sessions of PACE in April, June, September and January. An Extraordinary Session was also held in March, during which the Assembly debated the consequences of the Russian Federation's aggression against Ukraine.

The 14th Conference of Parliamentarians of the Arctic Region was held in April and the Standing Committee of the Conference of Parliamentarians of the Arctic Region (SCPAR) met in February. In January, Yvonne Jones, M.P., and Bob Zimmer, M.P., became the representatives of the Parliament of Canada on this committee, which is composed of members of nine countries of the Arctic region. On March 8, SCPAR released a statement to say that it would temporarily suspend its initiatives in response to Russia's invasion of Ukraine.

With restrictions due to COVID-19 easing towards the end of March 2022, CAEU was able to have its first in-person meeting with a delegation in over two years and met with the Council of the European Union Working Party on Transatlantic Relations.

Canadian Delegation to the OSCE Parliamentary Assembly (SECO)

Objectives

The Canadian Delegation to the OSCE Parliamentary Assembly (SECO) exists within the rubric of the Canada-Europe Parliamentary Association, sharing the same membership and addressing the same objectives. These objectives include providing a forum for the exchange of information and ideas between Canadian parliamentarians and the OSCE Parliamentary Assembly (OSCE PA), as well as providing opportunities to identify mutual goals and issues of common concern and striving for their attainment and resolution. The primary purpose of the OSCE PA, the parliamentary arm of the OSCE, is to facilitate interparliamentary dialogue and to issue recommendations to the OSCE concerning its three dimensions of action: the politico-military dimension, the economic and environmental dimension, and the human dimension.

2021-2022 Activities and Expenditures

During the 2021-2022 fiscal year, the regular in-person activities of the members of the Canadian Delegation to the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe Parliamentary Assembly (OSCE PA) were halted due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The pandemic, however, did not stop the members of the OSCE PA from being active, participating in 18 activities organized by or in collaboration with the International Secretariat. Of note, a series of Web Dialogues on topics of importance to the assembly was developed to replace regular meetings, which could not be held throughout the year, ranging on topics such as gender equality, the implementation of sustainable development goals, the contribution of youth to the rule of law, violence against women journalists and politicians, education rights of national minorities, and the role of the OSCE PA in addressing the conflict in Ukraine.

As active members of the PA, the Canadian delegation shared their perspectives on a range of issues and shared best practices with parliamentarians from the Organization's other 56 participating States. In addition to the multiple webinars discussed above, members of the Canadian Delegation were able to participate in the 2021 virtual Remote Session, the 2021 virtual Fall Session, as well as the 2022 Winter Session, which began on February 24, the first day of the Russian invasion in Ukraine. Members also attended other regular meetings such as those of the Ad Hoc Committee on Migration and of the expanded Bureau of the OSCE PA.

Canadian Branch of the Assemblée parlementaire de la Francophonie (CAPF)

Objectives

The Parliament of Canada is a founding member and plays an important role within the Assemblée parlementaire de la Francophonie (APF). The objectives of the Canadian Branch of the Assemblée parlementaire de la Francophonie (CAPF) are: to encourage initiatives which promote the spread of the French language; to encourage the study of cultural, economic and social matters of common interest in order to bring about close cooperation among parliamentarians who are members of the APF; and to help establish genuine intercultural dialogue. Finally, the CAPF seeks to encourage activities and events likely to lead to exchanges among federal and provincial parliamentarians and their counterparts in other French-speaking countries.

2021-2022 Activities and Expenditures

CAPF continued to engage in numerous virtual activities throughout 2021-2022. In May, CAPF participated in a virtual webinar of the French Network for Men-Women Equity, a meeting of the Network of Women Parliamentarians' working group on harassment, a Parliamentary Conference on Digitalization, and a Parliamentary Affairs Committee meeting.

In June, CAPF had meetings of the Permanent Delegation to the APF; of the Education, Communication and Cultural Affairs Committee; the Political Committee; and of the Network of Women Parliamentarians.

For the month of July, CAPF delegations participated virtually at the meetings of the Young Parliamentarians Network and a discussion on Digitalization. In August, CAPF took part in the Conference of Branch Chairs of the Americas Region at the 36th Annual Session.

In September, CAPF participated in the 74th Annual General Meeting of the Association canadienne d'éducation de langue française. In October, CAPF delegates participated in the meetings of the Cooperation and Development Committee and in the APF Bureau Meeting, as well as the France-Quebec Seminar on Women Parliamentarism.

To begin the new year, CAPF participated in the APF Bureau meeting, and its Chair took part in a working session with the Secretary General of the International Organisation of La Francophonie. In February, a delegation participated in the Working Group in Peacekeeping Missions of APF, as well as a meeting of the Presidencies of APF.

Finally, in March, the Branch held its Annual General Meeting, and its Chair took part of the 40th Ministerial Conference of the Francophonie and other working sessions, replacing the President of the APF.

Canadian Branch of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association (CCOM)

Objectives

The Canadian Branch of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association (CCOM) provides the primary means for the Parliament of Canada to hold regular consultation with members of the Commonwealth Parliaments. As the parliamentary wing of the Commonwealth, the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association seeks to foster the study of and respect for parliamentary institutions. It pursues these objectives by means of annual Commonwealth parliamentary conferences and regional conferences; the interchange of delegations; seminars; and publications, notably The Parliamentarian (the Journal of Commonwealth Parliaments) and a wide range of resources on the CPA website www.cpahq.org.

2021-2022 Activities and Expenditures

CCOM had to change its program of activities over the last fiscal year due to the COVID-19 pandemic. As a result, some activities were held virtually, and others, like the Canadian Regional Conference, had to be cancelled. The international conference that was supposed to be held in Halifax in August 2021 was further postponed to August 2022. Nevertheless, CCOM remained active. The CPA Secretariat offered four webinars on topics that had been selected for the conference. CCOM was actively involved in several of these webinars, with CCOM members appearing on expert panels where the primary topic was representation and diversity in democracy and responses to countering terrorism and violent extremism. CCOM members attended the virtual conference on the Fourth Industrial Revolution organized by the CPA Secretariat. The CPA Secretariat also asked members of the Canadian Branch to speak at virtual post-election seminars for various Caribbean countries, including The Bahamas, Belize, and the British Virgin Islands. CCOM also held a virtual AGM in February 2022. Lastly, CCOM took part in several virtual activities hosted by the United Kingdom Branch of the CPA, including a two-day webinar entitled “Actions to Prevent Human Trafficking through Sport”, a roundtable on climate security and governance, three workshops on trade agreements, and a three-day seminar on parliamentary practice in the Westminster system.

Inter-Parliamentary Union

Canadian Group of the Inter-Parliamentary Union (UIPU)

Objectives

The Inter-Parliamentary Union (IPU) is the international organization of Parliaments of sovereign States. The IPU works for peace and cooperation among peoples and for the firm establishment of representative institutions. To that end, it: fosters contacts, coordination, and the exchange of experience among Parliaments and parliamentarians of all countries; considers questions of international interest and concern and expresses its views on such issues in order to bring about action by Parliaments and parliamentarians; contributes to the defence and promotion of human rights; and contributes to better knowledge of the working of representative institutions and to the strengthening and development of their means of action. The activities of the IPU provide important opportunities for exchanges. The objectives of the delegations of the Canadian Group of the Inter-Parliamentary Union (UIPU) are to represent the values, interests and points of view of Canada in this forum.

2021-2022 Activities and Expenditures

UIPU members participated in nearly 100 activities during this fiscal year, as the IPU continued its practice of offering most activities – including one of the three IPU assemblies held during this time period – in either a virtual or hybrid format during the COVID-19 pandemic.

IPU assemblies are opportunities for Canadian parliamentarians to engage with colleagues from other member parliaments on questions related to democracy, the rule of law, human rights, gender equality, and sustainable development. A UIPU delegation participated in the 142nd Assembly, which was held in a virtual format in April and May 2021 following a year-long postponement due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Due to the moratorium on international travel by parliamentary associations, UIPU delegates were not able to participate fully in the two IPU assemblies held on an in-person basis: the 143rd Assembly in Madrid, Spain in November 2021 and the 144th Assembly in Nusa Dua, Indonesia in March 2022. However, the UIPU successfully proposed amendments to several resolutions and contributed statements to the General Debates. Throughout the year, members of the UIPU were active in the IPU’s institutional bodies, including the Executive Committee, the Committee on Middle East Questions, the Committee on the Human Rights of Parliamentarians, the Bureau of the Forum of Women Parliamentarians, the Bureau of the Committee on Democracy and Human Rights, and the Bureau of the Committee on Sustainable Development.

In addition to the assemblies, UIPU delegates participated in virtual workshops, seminars, and conferences on a variety of themes, including post-pandemic economic and social recovery, climate change, disarmament, sustainable development, and internet governance.

Canadian NATO Parliamentary Association (CANA)

Objectives

The aim of the Canadian NATO Parliamentary Association (CANA) is to increase knowledge of the concerns of the NATO Parliamentary Assembly among parliamentarians. The Assembly has its headquarters in Brussels but is completely independent of the official NATO structure. It provides a forum for parliamentarians from the NATO member countries to study and discuss matters of common concern during its Spring and Autumn Sessions. The Assembly's work deals with social, cultural, political and economic questions, as well as military matters, all of which are of vital concern to NATO member countries. Parliamentarians participate in meetings and information exchanges with colleagues throughout Europe and North America but also in Asia and Africa, as well as in the regular Assembly Sessions.

2021-2022 Activities and Expenditures

Due to the continued COVID-19 health restrictions and the extension of the moratorium on all IIA-supported international travel and incoming delegations, CANA’s activities remained mostly virtual throughout this past fiscal year. CANA delegates were able to participate in hybrid NATO Parliamentary Assembly (PA) activities including meetings of committees, webinars, the Spring Session, and the 67th Annual Session. The subjects discussed included the conflict in Ukraine, the PA’s contribution to the 2022 NATO Strategic Concept, biotechnology and building resilience to disinformation and cyberthreats. Exceptionally, a CANA delegate was able to travel to the 13th Halifax International Security Forum in November 2021 to participate in-person, one of the few such instances over the past 12 months. In March 2022, as the moratorium was scheduled to be lifted, CANA hosted His Excellency Dr. Artis Pabriks, Deputy Prime Minister and Defence Minister of the Republic of Latvia, while he was visiting Ottawa. CANA also held a virtual AGM in March of 2022.

2021-2022 Activities and Expenditures

The Canadian Section of ParlAmericas (CPAM) held its activities virtually this fiscal year because of the COVID-19 pandemic. In May, members received a briefing on the COVAX initiative. In June, a delegation participated in the 5th Gathering of the ParlAmericas Parliamentary Network on Climate Change to identify strategies parliaments can take to ensure inclusive climate action. In August, members participated in an interparliamentary dialogue celebrating 60 years of diplomatic relations between Canada and Central American countries. In September, a delegation participated in the 13th Gathering of the ParlAmericas Parliamentary Network for Gender Equality to discuss social protection measures that were taken to respond to pandemic-related inequalities. In late November, a delegation attended the 18th Plenary Assembly of ParlAmericas to share parliaments’ best practices in rebuilding the social contract. In March, members participated in the 6th Gathering of the ParlAmericas Open Parliament Network, which focused on the importance of integrity in building stronger democracies. In addition, the ParlAmericas Board of Directors and its networks held eight meetings to discuss governance, finances, strategies, and activities for the current year. Finally, CPAM Executive Committee members represented ParlAmericas and Canada at Canadian and international events, such as COP26, the World e-Parliament Conference and the Canadian Study of Parliament Group.

Canada-China Legislative Association (CACN)

Objectives

The Canada-China Legislative Association (CACN) provides a forum for the discussion of bilateral and multilateral challenges and opportunities facing the two countries. It promotes the exchange of information between Canadian parliamentarians and representatives of the National Peoples' Congress of the Peoples' Republic of China in order to encourage better understanding and closer ties between the two countries. A key component of the Association's activities consists of annual bilateral meetings between Canadian federal parliamentarians and their counterparts from the National People's Congress.

Canada-France Inter-Parliamentary Association (CAFR)

Objectives

The Canada-France Inter-Parliamentary Association (CAFR) serves as a forum in which Canadian and French parliamentarians can exchange information and ideas. The Association normally meets once a year for their Annual Meeting, alternating meeting sites between Canada and France. The Association also organizes smaller gatherings on specific issues. An objective of the Association is to put forward to the governments and Parliaments of the two countries initiatives with the potential to foster a better understanding of internal or bilateral issues, as well to promote bilateral cooperation in political, economic, social, cultural and parliamentary spheres.

2021-2022 Activities and Expenditures

The Canada-France Inter-Parliamentary Association (CAFR) continued to be active virtually during the 2021-2022 fiscal year, despite the COVID-19 pandemic. For example, on April 27, members of the CAFR Executive Committee held a virtual meeting with the Canadian Ambassador to France and her staff on Canada-France trade and economic relations. On May 10, members of the CAFR Executive Committee met virtually with members of the France-Canada Inter-Parliamentary Association and discussed common interests in order to identify topics for a possible annual meeting. They also discussed their priorities for 2021-2022. Finally, on February 7, CAFR’s Chair, Marie-France Lalonde, met virtually with Senator Yan Chantrel, the new Chair of the Senate’s France-Canada Friendship Group, and Member Guillaume Kasbarian, Chair of the France-Canada Inter-Parliamentary Association. The Chairs discussed topics for 2022-2023 and upcoming annual meetings. They also gave an update on the public health situation and vaccination status in their respective countries and briefly discussed the impact of the French election on the CAFR’s activities.
