The Pre- Retirement Years... An Age of Transition

STATISTICS CANADA LIBRARY
BIBLIOTHEQUE STATISTIQUE CANADA
1010144180

In 1990, Canadians aged 55-64 numbered almost 2.4 million. While much has been written about people aged 65 and over, the pre-retirement age group has received little attention. The Target Group's publication, Canadians in the Pre-Retirement Years: A Profile of People Aged 55-64 provides a comprehensive, statistical overview of the population nearing retirement age.

This 40-page publication starts with a Highlights section for you to scan and decide which topics interest you most. When you want to delve deeper, you'll find the latest facts and concise summaries on the following issues:

- Population
- Family and Living Arrangements
- Health
- Education
- Work
- Income
- Housing
- Activity Patterns

Written in an easy-to-read style and supported by more than 40 charts and tables, the information at the core of Canadians in the Pre-Retirement Years is taken from many published and unpublished sources including: a variety of Statistics Canada publications and the General Social Survey.

This is "must-reading" for those involved in planning, designing or implementing services to older Canadians, as well as those with an interest in the "greying" of Canadian society.

Order your copy of Canadians in the Pre-Retirement Years: A Profile of People Aged 55-64 (Cat. #89-521E) today, for only $36 in Canada, US $43 in the United States, and US $50 in other countries.
