

Government of Canada

Gouvernement du Canada

CAREERPLACE

Promoting the Aboriginal Workforce

a service of SkillNet.ca

www.careerplace.com

Canada

CareerPLACE (www.careerplace.com) is a national career and recruitment Web site that helps Aboriginal job seekers, Canadian employers, Aboriginal organizations and educational institutions connect to each other on-line. It also contains a wealth of tips and information for job seekers and employers, making it a valuable resource for Canada's strong and diverse Aboriginal workforce.

SERVICES FOR ABORIGINAL JOB SEEKERS

With CareerPLACE Aboriginal job seekers can:

- ✧ Post their résumés on-line, where they can be viewed by employers from across Canada
- ✧ Conduct research on potential employers, and identify possible employment opportunities
- ✧ Submit applications on-line for jobs posted on the site
- ✧ Apply for national recruitment campaigns electronically
- ✧ Access job search and career information tools
- ✧ Print a professionally formatted copy of their résumé
- ✧ Access a personalized calendar for upcoming career fairs, events and activities
- ✧ Access daily labour market information through SkillNet Today, an on-line newsletter

SERVICES FOR EMPLOYERS

Employers can use CareerPLACE to:

- ✧ Quickly search for potential Aboriginal employees from one easy-to-use portal
- ✧ Launch a national recruitment campaign for qualified Aboriginal job seekers
- ✧ Advertise full-time, part-time, summer, and internship opportunities
- ✧ Contact potential employees to set up interviews, testing and information sessions
- ✧ Build an on-line inventory of interested and qualified Aboriginal job seekers
- ✧ Promote their organizations through banner ads and bulletins
- ✧ Market their products, services and employment opportunities across Canada

SERVICES FOR EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Educational institutions can use CareerPLACE to:

- ✧ Promote their programs and services across Canada
- ✧ Build inventories of potential students

HOW TO REGISTER

Simply visit CareerPLACE on-line at www.careerplace.com REGISTRATION IS FREE!

CAREERPLACE CHAMPIONS

The service was developed in 1999 by Industry Canada, with the assistance and support of many Aboriginal organizations, government departments, and the private sector, including:

- * Aboriginal Human Resources Development Council of Canada
- * Congress of Aboriginal Peoples
- * Federation of Newfoundland Indians
- * Federation of Saskatchewan Indian Nations, Corporate Circle
- * Indian Council of First Nations - Manitoba
- * Indian and Northern Affairs Canada
- * Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
- * Inuit Tapirisat of Canada
- * Kitikmeot Economic Development Commission
- * Labrador-Métis Association
- * Lakehead University, Aboriginal Initiatives
- * Makivik Corporation
- * Métis National Council
- * National Aboriginal Business Association
- * National Association of Friendship Centres
- * Native Communication, Inc.
- * Native Communications Society of Western Northwest Territories
- * Native Women's Association of Canada
- * Nortel Networks
- * Okalakatiget Society
- * Ontario Métis Aboriginal Association
- * Public Service Commission of Canada
- * University of Ottawa Student Council

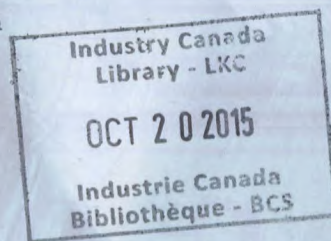

The following federal departments have provided the financial support necessary to make CareerPLACE a reality:

- * Human Resources Development Canada
- * Industry Canada

CareerPLACE is a member site of Industry Canada's SkillNet.ca network (www.SkillNet.ca). SkillNet.ca brings together a variety of independent recruitment services and offers an environment for job seekers and employers to find each other.

Visit CareerPLACE now at www.careerplace.com or contact:

CareerPLACE
Phone: 1-800-575-9200
Fax: (613) 941-4940
help@careerplace.com

INDUSTRY CANADA / INDUSTRIE CANADA

223923

Cat. No. Iu44-3/2003
ISBN 0-662-67268-2
53916B

20% recycled material

