INTRODUCTION

Info Source: Sources of Federal Government and Employee Information provides information about the functions, programs, activities and related information holdings of government institutions subject to the Access to Information Act and the Privacy Act. It provides individuals and employees of the government (current and former) with relevant information to access personal information about themselves held by government institutions subject to the Privacy Act and to exercise their rights under the Privacy Act.

The Introduction and an index of institutions subject to the Access to Information Act and the Privacy Act are available centrally.

The Access to Information Act and the Privacy Act assign overall responsibility to the President of Treasury Board (as the designated Minister) for the government-wide administration of the legislation.

GENERAL INFORMATION

BACKGROUND

The Canadian Museum of History (CMH) and its affiliate, the Canadian War Museum (CWM), were established by amendments to the Museums Act, which received Royal Assent on December 12, 2013. These amendments revised the mandate of the crown corporation, which had been established in the Museums Act of 1990.

Use of the terms “the Museums” and “the corporation” in this document refer to the CMH as a corporate entity, and encompass both the CMH and the CWM. The corporation has also hosted the Virtual Museum of Canada since 2014 and, with more than 500 virtual exhibits, it's the largest source of online content and experiences shared by large and small Canadian museums and heritage organizations. The corporation also operates the Virtual Museum of New France (VMNF), a web-based exhibition of digitized images and information, the Canadian Children's Museum and the CINÉ+.

The CMH is a distinct legal entity—wholly-owned by the Crown—that operates at arm's length from the government in its day-to-day operations, activities and programming. As a Crown corporation and as a member of the Canadian Heritage Portfolio, it contributes to the achievement of the Government of Canada's broad cultural policy objectives.

The corporation is governed by the Crown corporation control and accountability regime established under Part X of the Financial Administration Act, and its corporate by-laws 1 and 2. It also complies with other statutes including: the Federal Accountability Act; the Access to Information Act; the Privacy Act; the Public Servants Disclosure Protection Act; the Criminal Code of Canada; the Official Languages Act and Regulations; the Canada Labour Code; and aligns with the Values and Ethics Code for the Public Sector through the corporation's Code of Conduct. The corporation reports to Parliament through the Minister of Canadian Heritage and Official Languages.

As a Crown Corporation and as a member of the Canadian Heritage Portfolio, the Canadian Museum of History reports to Parliament through the Minister of Canadian Heritage and contributes to the achievement of the Federal Government's broad policy objectives. It is governed by a Board of Trustees and a President and Chief Executive Officer.

The Museums Act provides for a Board of Trustees, whose 11 members are appointed by the Minister of Canadian Heritage and Official Languages with the approval of the Governor in Council. The Trustees are selected from across the country. The Board, accountable to Parliament through the Minister of Canadian Heritage and Official Languages, provides broad strategic direction and oversight and meets regularly, including through an annual meeting that is open to the public. In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Board as a whole, with the help of 6 Committees and 1 Working Group, oversees the development and application of policies concerning corporate governance.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The mandate of the Canadian Museum of History is to:

Enhance Canadians' knowledge, understanding and appreciation of events, experiences, people and objects that reflect and have shaped Canada's history and identity and also to enhance their awareness of world history and cultures.

Together, the Canadian Museum of History and the Canadian War Museum showcase Canada's national treasures and contain exhibitions that preserve the memories and experiences of the Canadian people, exploring the events, people, themes and special objects that have helped shape the country, from earliest times to the present day. The CMH also presents national and international temporary exhibitions.

The Museums also support the Government of Canada's cultural policy objectives by contributing to the vision of the Department of Canadian Heritage, "one of a Canada where all Canadians can celebrate our rich cultural diversity, our shared experiences and values, and where all can gain a greater understanding and appreciation of our history, heritage, and communities."

INSTITUTIONAL FUNCTIONS, PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES

CLASSES OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Some Canadian Museum of History files summarized in the classes of records contains personal information which is not used in a decision-making process directly affecting the individual to whom it relates. Examples are inquiries about the Canadian Museum of History and the Canadian War Museum collections, programmes and services, information and advice given to individuals by the Canadian Museum of History and the Canadian War Museum employees about museums and museum objects, and information about individuals in documents relating to grants or proposed grants to institutions.

These classes of personal information are kept on the relevant subject files and are not identifiable by name of the individual or other personal identifier. To retrieve these classes of personal information, the Corporation would need as much detail as possible about the subject matter, the geographic location and the time the information would have come to the Canadian Museum of History or the Canadian War Museum.

The retention periods for these classes of personal information are subject to Privacy Act retention schedules.

Please note: Each request made to the Canadian Museum of History and its affiliate the Canadian War Museum under the Access to Information Act must be accompanied by an application fee of $5.00, cheque or money order made payable to the Canadian Museum of History. There is no fee for requests made under the Privacy Act.

ENQUIRIES

The Government of Canada encourages the release of information through requests outside of the ATIP process. You may wish to consult Canadian Museum of History completed Access to Information (ATI) summaries <http://www.historymuseum.ca/about-us/corporation/about-the-corporation/completed-access-to-information-requests>.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION AND PRIVACY REQUESTS

To make a formal request, procedures have been articulated by the Government of Canada. Please visit the following site atip-aiprp.apps.gc.ca.

Formal Requests

The following procedures should be followed when making a formal request under the Access to Information Act.

1. Obtain an Access to Information Request form from the Treasury Board Secretariat website. If the form is not used, a letter may be sent instead. See the instructions below.
2. Enclose the application fee.
3. Send the completed form or the letter to the Access to Information Coordinator of the appropriate government institution.

If a letter is submitted instead of the Access to Information Request form, the following information must be included:

- statement that the information is being requested under the Access to Information Act;
- name of the appropriate government institution;
- description of the records requested (be as specific as possible);
- preferred method of viewing the records (e.g. receiving photocopies of the original documents or viewing the originals in the government office where they are located);
- name, street address, city or town, province or territory, postal code, telephone number(s) and signature of the applicant;
- date of request; and
- application fee.

The following procedures should be followed when making a formal request under the Privacy Act.

1. Obtain a Personal Information Request Form from the Treasury Board Secretariat web site.
2. Send the completed form to the Privacy Coordinator of the appropriate government institution.

If a letter is submitted instead of the Personal Information Request Form, the following information must be included:

- statement that the information is being requested under the Privacy Act;
- name of the appropriate government institution;
- description of the records requested (be as specific as possible);
- preferred method of viewing the records (e.g. receiving photocopies of the original documents or viewing the originals in the government office where they are located);
- name, street address, city or town, province or territory, postal code, telephone number(s) and signature of the applicant;
- date of request.

Fees

An application fee of $5 applies to all access to information requests made to the Canadian Museum of History and its affiliate the Canadian War Museum. Cheques and money orders are payable to the Canadian Museum of History.

There is no fee to apply for or obtain information under the Privacy Act.

Time to process a request

Under the Access to Information Act, government institutions must respond to a request within 30 days; however, in certain cases, extensions may be applied by the institution where conditions established by the Access to Information Act are met; for example, where the request is for a large number of records, requires a search through a large number of records or where consultations are necessary. Applicants who feel that it is taking too long to process their requests may submit a complaint to the Office of the Information Commissioner. Please visit the following site oic-ci.gc.ca.

Under the Privacy Act, government institutions must respond to a request within 30 days. If a time extension is required, the applicant will be notified within the first 30 days and told why up to another 30 days may be needed. Applicants who feel that it is taking too long to process their requests may submit a complaint to the Office of the Privacy (see site priv.gc.ca).

To correct personal information

If an individual believes that the personal information a government institution has on file about him/her is in error or has been omitted, the individual may ask to have it corrected by submitting a request for correction. Even if the institution does not agree to change this information, it must make a note that a request for the change was made and attach the note to the file. The following procedures should be followed when making a request for Record Correction under the Privacy Act.

- Obtain a Record Correction Request Form from the Treasury Board Secretariat web site.
- Send the completed form to the Privacy Coordinator of the appropriate government institution.

READING ROOM

In accordance with the Access to Information Act and Privacy Act, an area on the premises will be made available should the applicant wish to review materials on site. The address is:

Canadian Museum of History
100 Laurier Street
Gatineau, Quebec
