

Figure 7a. Photo stereo pair shows raised shorelines (red concentric lines) highlighting emergent coastal topography typical of the eastern coast of Victoria Island.