1. Introduction

(i) Purpose of the Privacy Act

The purpose of the Privacy Act is to govern the collection, use, disclosure/sharing, accuracy, protection, retention and disposition of personal information by federal government institutions that are listed in its Schedule. The Privacy Act also grants individuals the right to request access to their personal information and the right to request the correction of that personal information. The First Nations Tax Commission (FNTC) was added to that Schedule as part of the process that led to the adoption of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act (FMA) on March 23, 2005.

(ii) Preparation of the Annual Report

This annual report has been prepared in accordance with section 72 of the Privacy Act and outlines how the FNTC has fulfilled its responsibilities under the Privacy Act for the reporting period from April 1, 2022 to March 31, 2023.

(iii) Tabling of the Annual Report

The FNTC's 2022-2023 Annual Report on the Privacy Act will be tabled in Parliament in accordance with section 72 of the Privacy Act.

(iv) Mandate of the First Nations Tax Commission

The FNTC was established by federal legislation, the First Nations Fiscal Management Act (FMA), to provide for the regulation of First Nation property taxation. This Act, Bill C-20, was passed on March 23, 2005, and also created two other institutions: the First Nations Financial Management Board (FNFMB) and the First Nations Finance Authority (FNFA). At this time consequential amendments were made to the Privacy Act to allow its application to the FNTC and the FNFMB. As such, the FNTC maintains openness, promotes transparency and assists any Canadian citizen the right to access their respective personal information which is under the control of the FNTC. It also commits to adequately protect their personal information and to conduct its activities in compliance with the Privacy Act and the generally accepted privacy principles.

In 1988, amendments to the Indian Act extended the taxing powers of First Nations to their interests in conditionally surrendered or "designated" lands. This First Nation-led change to the Indian Act gave First Nations broad new powers to tax the interests within the reserve, thereby establishing their jurisdiction, creating economic development opportunities and providing a basic tool for self-government. The FMA builds upon this work.

The FNTC's primary objective is to ensure that the First Nation property tax system is administratively efficient, harmonized with various regions in the country, and considers the interests of on-reserve taxpayers. The FMA establishes FNTC as a statute-based service agency for First Nations exercising the approval of local revenue laws.

The FNTC represents the collective interests of First Nations and taxpayers and promotes economic development by enhancing the administrative efficiency and stability of the First Nation property tax system. The FNTC's chief aims are to expand First Nation taxation jurisdiction and increase investment on First Nations lands. It also ensures the effective administration of the tax system while protecting its integrity by reconciling the interests of First Nation tax authorities, and taxpayers, thus creating benefits to all.

2. Administration/Structure

To fulfill the FNTC's responsibilities with respect to the Privacy Act, the FNTC has developed an infrastructure (information management, security and Access to Information and Privacy policies and procedures) to support the FNTC's general operations and the administration of its Privacy program.

The FNTC Access to Information and Privacy (ATIP) Office is part of the Corporate Services business line. There are two full-time employees who are dedicated part-time to Privacy activities and one consultant who provides assistance and guidance when required.

3. Delegation Order

FNTC's Delegation Order for the Access to Information Act and Privacy Act authorizes certain officers and employees of the FNTC to exercise signing authorities or to perform certain of the Chief Commissioner's powers, duties or functions under the Acts. A copy of the FNTC's Delegation of Authority is included in this report as Appendix A.

4. Interpretation of the Statistical Report 2021-2022

A copy of the FNTC Statistical Report on the Privacy Act is included in Appendix B of this Annual Report.
