

FORUM ON CORRECTIONS RESEARCH

INDEX OF TITLES

Vol. 19 No. 1. (2007) Academic Contributions

Perspectives

- Adhering to principles of effective correctional treatment: Academic musings of a former clinician and administrator

Programming research

- The relationship between program participation, institutional misconduct and recidivism among federally sentenced adult male offenders

Sex offender research

- Detention with sexual offenders: Can we do better?
- Predicting sex offender program attrition: The role of denial, motivation and treatment readiness
- Indirectly measuring what child sexual abusers think about themselves and children

Community focused research

- Seeing eye to eye: Parole officer and parolee views of crime desistance
- Understanding failure to comply convictions with young offenders; A snapshot of one Canadian courthouse

Gender research

- Considering a counter-reformation in the psychology of criminal conduct for women: Converging evidence, confidence intervals and consultation
- Gender in parole decisions
- Traditional and new perspectives for understanding and researching gender and aggression

Vol. 18 No. 1. (2006) Managing addictions

Perspectives

- Coming together on substance abuse is a beg-inning, staying the course is progress, and working together is a success
- National thematic workshop on corrections: Addressing substance abuse through collaboration
- Addictions programming: A perspective on corrections in Nova Scotia

Profiles

- The Canadian Addiction Survey: Substance use and misuse among the Canadian population
- The Computerized Assessment of Substance Abuse (CASA)
- Re-profiling the drug offender population in Canadian federal corrections

Programs

- Intensive Support Units for federal offenders with substance abuse problems: An impact analysis
- Random urinalysis testing in federal corrections
- Developing national substance abuse programs in Canadian federal corrections
- Development of an Aboriginal Offender Substance Abuse Program
- Women Offender Substance Abuse Programming: Interim results

Vol. 17 No. 1. (2005) Offender Employment

Perspectives

- Unemployment risk trends and the implications for Canadian federal offenders
- Skills Canadian employers are looking for — A national program
- The impact of community-based employment on offender reintegration
- Offender employment: A research summary

Profiles

- Offender employment: What the research tells us
- Women offenders' employment needs: Research for a gender-informed employment strategy

- Community employment centres for offenders: A preliminary exploration

Programs

- Offender employment and employability: An overview
- Building bridges to hope: A pre-employment program for women with criminal justice involvement
- The importance of employment to offender re-integration
- The National Employability Skills Program for offenders: A preliminary investigation

Vol. 16 No. 1. (2004) Women offenders

Perspectives

- Managing maximum security women in Federal Corrections 1989-2004
- The reintegration of federally-sentenced women: A commentary
- Structured living environments in Canadian federal institutions for women
- Fraser Valley Institution: A new federal corrections facility for women
- Implementation of a supervision project for federally-sentenced women in Montreal
- An exceptional resource for women in the Outaouais: The Josée McCann Centre

Profiles

- Federally sentenced women in the community: Dynamic risk predictors
- Women with violent offence histories: A comparison
- A profile of federally-sentenced women on conditional release
- Development and validation of a Security Reclassification Scale for women
- The revocation of conditionally-released women: A research summary
- A low security prison for women: A best practice in Western Australia

Programs

- A correctional programming strategy for women
- A gender-specific substance abuse program for federally-sentenced women
- The use of stories for healing interventions with women
- Incarcerated mothers and their children: A complex issue
- An integrated and woman-centred approach to treating Borderline Personality Disorder
- Utilizing a strengths perspective in parole supervision with women

Vol. 15 No. 2. (12-2003) Performance Measurement

Perspectives

- Performance assurance in Canadian federal corrections
- Corrections and Conditional Release Statistical Overviews
- Measuring what prisons do: A synopsis
- Correctional research in support of key strategic challenges and outcomes
- Performance measurement at the National Parole Board
- Measuring security in corrections: The issues and challenges
- Maintaining data quality in support of measurement

Reporting

- Reports of Automated Data Applied to Reintegration (RADAR)
- The Corporate Reporting System (CRS) in the Correctional Service of Canada
- The Climate Indicators and Profiling System (CIPS)
- Portals on Results, Information, Measurement and Evaluation (PRIME)

Effectiveness

- Correctional program and site accreditation in Canada
- Applied research in support of program effectiveness
- Monitoring reintegration program participation in corrections
- Using proxy measures for correctional research

Vol. 15 No. 1. (05-2003) Community engagement

Perspectives

- Community corrections: A National Parole Board perspective

- Issues affecting halfway houses
- The role of Citizens' Advisory Committees in Canada
- Communities: Are you involved?

Profiles

- A profile of offenders serving time in the community
- Participation of federal offenders in community-based programs
- Citizens' Advisory Committees: A profile of members

Reintegration

- Halfway houses for federal offenders: What do we know about them?
- The Community Maintenance Program: A new strategy for providing treatment follow-up in the community
- Managing addictions in the community
- Restorative justice in corrections
- Offenders as resources in crime prevention
- Community outreach by the Correctional Service of Canada: Engagement activities and initiatives

Vol. 14 No. 3. (09-2002) Focusing on Aboriginal issues

Perspectives

- Aboriginal pathways in federal corrections
- Serving the Inuit offender
- Childhood experiences affect Aboriginal offenders
- The validity of the Custody Rating Scale for the initial security classification of Aboriginal women
- Future demographic trends may help Canada's Aboriginal youth

Profiles

- A profile of Aboriginal offenders in federal facilities and serving time in the community
- A needs profile of serious and/or violent Aboriginal youth in prison
- Profiling federally incarcerated First Nations, Métis, and Inuit offenders
- The role of large cities in the over-representation of Aboriginal people in the federal correctional system

Programs

- Treatment/healing for sexual offending behaviour among Aboriginal men: Setting direction based on client characteristics
- The Tupiq Program: Inuit community development in an institutional program
- In Search of Your Warrior Program
- Métis offenders in British Columbia: An examination of needs in the institution and upon release

Reintegration

- Inuit sexual offenders: Victim, offence, and recidivism characteristics
- Examining reintegration potential for Aboriginal offenders
- An examination of healing lodges for federal offenders in Canada
- Turning Points: Factors related to the successful reintegration of Aboriginal offenders
- Getting out and staying out: A conceptual framework for the successful reintegration of Aboriginal male young offenders
- The challenge of Fetal Alcohol Syndrome in adult offender populations

Vol. 14 No. 2. (05-2002) Health care

Medical

- Using health indicators (physical, dental, nutritional) at offender intake to identify needs
- Mental health trends among federal inmates
- Rates of prescribed medication use by women in prison
- The physical and mental health of older offenders
- Health issues for Aboriginal offenders
- Infectious diseases in Canadian federal penitentiaries
- Synthetic forms of THC in clinical treatment settings

Psychological

- Mental health needs of women offenders: Needs analysis for the development of the intensive Intervention Strategy

- Correctional adaptation of Dialectical Behaviour Therapy (DBT) for federally sentenced women
- An examination of suicide attempts among inmates

Alternatives

- Quality of life promotion: The foundation of offender rehabilitation?
- Alternative medicines in corrections: A survey

Vol. 14 No. 1. (01-2002) Academic Contributions

Doctoral

- Understanding employment: A prospective exploration of factors linked to community-based employment among federal offenders
- Phallometric testing with sexual offenders against female victims: Limits to its value
- Victimization, fear, and coping in prison
- Consumption of psychoactive substances in Quebec prisons
- Antecedents and outcomes of correctional officers attitudes towards federal inmates: An exploration of person-organization fit
- The dynamic prediction of criminal recidivism: A three-wave prospective study
- The utility of interpersonal circumplex theory in research and treatment of sexual offenders
- Classifying female offenders for effective intervention: Application of the case-based principles of risk and need

Masters

- Impact of incarceration on the mothering role
- An examination of release decisions for sexual offenders: Do biases exist?
- The impact of traumatic events and post-traumatic stress disorder among correctional nurses
- Predictors of work stress among correctional officers

Honours

- Evaluation of the Living Without Family Violence program

Research in brief

- Sexual victimization and sexual delinquency: Vampire or Pinocchio syndrome?

Vol. 13 No. 3. (09-2001) Focusing on Alcohol and Drugs

Perspectives

- Canada's National Drug Strategy
- The National Drug Strategy for the Correctional Service of Canada
- Drugs in federal corrections — The issues and challenges
- Alcohol and drugs: A perspective from corrections in the Province of Saskatchewan
- Substance abuse — The perspective of a National Parole Board member
- United States federal prisons: Drug users, drug testing, and drug treatment
- Alcohol and drugs: A perspective from New Zealand

Profiles

- Drugs, alcohol, and criminal behaviour: A profile of inmates in Canadian federal institutions
- Profiling the drug offender population in Canadian federal corrections

Programs

- The role and function of addictions research in the Correctional Service of Canada
- A dedicated facility designed for correctional researchers: The Addictions Research Centre
- Correctional Service of Canada's Core Substance Abuse Programs: OSAPP, ALTO, and Choices
- Intensive support units for federal inmates: A descriptive review
- High intensity substance abuse programming for offenders
- Programming for substance abusing women offenders
- Impact of institutional methadone maintenance treatment on release outcome
- Random Urinalysis Program: Policy, practice, and research
- Programs for substance abusing offenders in Canada: A national survey

Vol. 13 No. 2. (05-2001) Special Issue - Research Summaries R-56 1997 to R-95 2000

Research Summaries

- A model for a clinically-informed risk assessment strategy for sex offenders (R-56, 1997)
- Case characteristics of segregated offenders in federal corrections (R-57, 1997)
- Risk and need among federally-sentenced female offenders: A comparison of minimum, medium, and maximum-security inmates (R-58, 1997)
- Review of the offender population forecast: Models, data and requirements — with provisional forecasts for 1998 to 2007 (R-59, 1997)
- A two-year release follow-up of federal offenders who participated in the Adult Basic Education (ABE) Program (R-60, 1998)
- Aboriginal offender survey: Case files & interview sample (R-61, 1997)
- Day parole: Effects of Corrections and Conditional Release Act (1992) (R-62, 1998)
- Case management preparation for release and day parole outcome (R-63, 1998)
- Work Release Program: How it is used and for what purposes (R-64, 1998)
- Personal development temporary absences (R-65, 1998)
- The Temporary Absence Program: A descriptive analysis (R-66, 1998)
- Security classification using the Custody Rating Scale (R-67, 1998)
- Accelerated parole review: Were the objectives met? (R-68, 1998)
- Prison Work Program (CORCAN) participation: Post-release employment and recidivism (R-69, 1998)
- Managing older offenders: Where do we stand? (R-70, 1998)
- Fetal Alcohol Syndrome: Implications for Correctional Service (R-71, 1998)
- Assessing treatment change among family violent offenders: Reliability and validity of a family violence treatment assessment battery (R-72, 1998)
- Results of a pilot study of the peer support program for women offenders (R-73, 1998)
- Results of the legal services client satisfaction survey March 1997 — March 1998 (R-74, 1998)
- Case needs review: Substance abuse domain (R-75, 1998)
- A review of the literature on personal/emotional need factors (R-76, 1998)
- Case needs review: Associates/social interaction domain (R-77, 1998)
- Male young offenders in Canada: Revised edition (R-78, 1998)
- Adult male offenders in Canada: Recent trends (R-79, 1998)
- Female young offenders in Canada: Revised edition (R-80, 1998)
- An investigation into the characteristics of substance abusing women offenders: Risk, need and post release outcome (R-81, 1999)
- Anger management programming for federal male inmates: An effective intervention (R-82, 1999)
- Day parole outcome, criminal history and other predictors of successful sentence completion (R-83, 1999)
- Review of issues associated with serious spouse abuse among federally sentenced male offenders (R-84, 1999)
- The psychological effects of 60 days in administrative segregation (R-85, 2000)
- Results of an evaluation of the Peer Support Program at Grand Valley Institution for women (R-86, 2000)
- Results of an evaluation of the Peer Support Program at Nova Institution for women (R-87, 2000)
- Results of an evaluation of the Peer Support Program at Joliette Institution for women (R-88, 2000)
- Use of the residency condition with statutory release: A descriptive analysis (R-89, 2000)
- Case needs review: Employment domain (R-90, 2000)
- Predicting suicide attempts among male offenders in federal penitentiaries (R-91, 2000)
- A review of marital and family variable as they relate to adult criminal recidivism (R-92, 2000)
- Federal imprisonment trends for women, for 1994-95 to 1998-99 (R-93, 2000)
- An examination of offender risk and needs factors: Aboriginal and Caucasian women offenders (R-94, 2000)
- The utility of clinical and actuarial assessments for offenders in pre-release psychiatric decision-making (R-95, 2000)

Vol. 13 No. 1. (01-2001) Reintegration Levers

- The safe return of offenders through selection, intervention and supervision
- Reporting on results: The Correctional Service of Canada experience

Selection

- Initiating safe reintegration: A decade of Custodial Rating Scale results
- Using reintegration potential at intake to better identify safe release candidates

- The importance of developing correctional plans for offenders

Intervention

- Improving offender motivation for programming
- Increasing offender participation in programs
- Improving program performance among offenders
- Affecting detention referrals through proper selection
- Moderating segregation as a means to reintegration
- Increasing reintegration potential through inmate security reclassification
- Using temporary absence in the gradual reintegration process
- Enhancing case preparation for release decision-making

Supervision

- Encouraging community release and appropriate supervision
- Towards effective application of suspension discretion
- Managing offender risk through revocations

Research in brief

- Offender reintegration monitoring tools
- New directions in effective correctional treatment
- Group versus individual treatment of sex offenders: A comparison

Vol. 12 No. 3. (09-2000) Managing Long-Term Offenders

Perspectives

- Task Force on Long-term Offenders: A summary
- Residential programs for lifers: Six keys to success
- In-Reach workers: The foundation of Life Line

Profiles

- The long-term offender in federal corrections: A profile
- Release outcomes of long-term offenders
- Classifying offenders serving life sentences
- Women offenders serving long sentences in custody
- Population aging and the federal inmate profile of 2010!

Programs

- The Reintegration Effort for Long-term Infirm and Elderly Federal Offenders (RELIEF) program
- The effective management of women serving life sentences

Vol. 12 No. 2. (05-2000) "What Works" in Corrections

Research in brief

- A Compendium on "What Works" in Offender Programming
- Defining correctional programs
- The effects of community sanctions and incarceration on recidivism

Offender assessment

- Offender Assessment: General issues and considerations
- Treatment responsiveness: Reducing recidivism by enhancing treatment effectiveness
- Treatment resistance in corrections

Correctional treatment

- Education programming for offenders
- Reconceptualizing offender employment
- Informing young offender policy in current research: What the future holds
- Assessment and treatment of sexual offenders
- Programming for violent offenders
- Problems of self-regulation among adult offenders

Program evaluation

- Guidelines for asking the right questions and communicating results
- Cost-effective correctional treatment

Vol. 12 No. 1. (01-2000) Aboriginal People in Corrections

Perspectives

- Enhancing the role of Aboriginal communities in corrections
- Improving partnerships with Aboriginal communities
- Aboriginal inmates: Demographic trends and projections
- Aboriginal offenders in federal corrections: A profile
- Fetal Alcohol Syndrome: Understanding its impact
- Maori and the New Zealand corrections system
- First Nations policing in Ontario
- Aboriginal federal offender surveys: A synopsis

Restorative Justice

- Restorative justice in Canada
- Understanding restorative justice practices within the Aboriginal context
- RCMP's restorative justice initiative
- Elder/Healer: The elements of promise
- The role of traditional healers in the treatment of Aboriginal sexual offenders

Interventions

- Programs for Aboriginal offenders: A national survey
- Okimaw Ohci Healing Lodge: A federally sentenced women's initiative
- Aboriginal healing program evaluation: Success through negotiation
- Release potential of federally-sentenced Aboriginal inmates to communities
- Assessing the needs of Aboriginal women offenders on conditional release
- Aboriginal offenders and full parole: A profile

Special Edition (1989-1998)

Perspectives

- Andrews, D.A., Recidivism is Predictable and Can Be Influenced: Using Risk Assessments to Reduce Recidivism, Vol. 1, No. 2, 1989, P. 11-18. 5
- Andrews, D.A., and Hoge, R.D., The Psychology of Criminal Conduct and Principles of Effective Prevention and Rehabilitation, Vol. 7, No. 1., 1995, p. 34-36. 12

Assessment

- Bonta, J., Do we need theory for offender risk assessment? Volume 9, No. 1, 1997, p. 42-45. 15
- Motiuk, L., The Community Risk/Needs Management Scale: An effective supervision tool, Volume 9, No. 1, 1997, p. 8-12. 18
- Motiuk, L., Classification for correctional programming: The Offender Intake Assessment (01A) process, Volume 9, No. 1, 1997, p. 18-22 23
- Blanchette, K., Classifying female offenders for correctional interventions, Volume 9, No. 1, 1997, p. 36-41. 28
- Taylor, G., Implementing risk and needs classification in the Correctional Service of Canada, Volume 9, No. 1, 1997, p. 32-35. 33
- Luciani, F., Tried and true: Proof that the Custody Rating Scale is still reliable and valid, Volume 9, No. 1, 1997, P. 13-17. 36
- Motiuk, L., and Serin, R., Situating risk assessment in the reintegration potential framework, Volume 10, No. 1, 1998, p. 19-22. -11

Intervention

- Gendreau, P., and Goggin, C., Principles of effective correctional programming, Volume 8, No. 3, 1996, p. 38-41. 44
- Losel, E, Effective correctional programming: What empirical research tells us and what it doesn't, Volume 8, No. 3, 1996, p. 33-37 47
- Preston, D.L., and Murphy, S., Motivating treatment-resistant clients in therapy, Volume 9, No. 2, 1997, p. 39-43. 7,1
- Robinson, D., Factors influencing the effectiveness of cognitive skills training, Volume 8, No. 3, 1996, p. 6-9. 55
- Gordon, A., and Nicholaichuk, T., Applying the risk principle to sex offender treatment, Volume 8, No. 2, 1996, p. 36-38. 58

- Motiuk, L., Smiley, C., and Blanchette, K., Intensive programming for violent offenders: A comparative investigation, Volume 8, No. 3, 1996, p. 10-12. 61
- Serin, R., and Brown, S., Strategies for enhancing the treatment of violent offenders, Volume 8, No. 3, 1996, p. 45-48.

Vol. 11 No. 3. (09-1999) Women Offenders

Profiles

- Effective corrections for women offenders
- The processing of adult females through the police and court stages of the Canadian criminal justice system
- Women in federal and provincial-territorial correctional facilities
- Reintegration potential profiles for federally sentenced women

Interventions

- A meta-analytic investigation into effective correctional intervention for female offenders
- Gender-responsive programming for women offenders: Guiding principles and practices
- The Peer Support Program at Edmonton Institution for Women
- Mentoring Program at the Edmonton Institution for Women
- Solutions: An intensive substance abuse program

Perspectives

- Women offenders and employment
- The problem of suicide among female prisoners
- Criminal lunatic women in 19th century Canada
- Maximum security women: "Not letting the time do you"

Vol. 11 No. 2. (05-1999) Youth and Corrections

Research in brief

- Youth crime trends in British Columbia
- A profile of the adolescent sex offender
- Young adult offenders in federal corrections: A profile
- Younger offenders in the federal correctional system

Assessment and programming

- What works in young offender treatment: A meta-analysis
- A community-based alternative for high-risk young offenders
- Early intervention for sexual behaviour problems among young offenders
- Ontario's strict discipline facility is not just another "boot camp"

Perspectives

- Recent trends in youth crime
- Consequences of research on maladjusted adolescents
- Young offender legislation in Canada: A commentary

Vol. 11 No. 1. (01-1999) Response to Call for Papers

Research on treatment issues

- Contrecoups: A program of therapy for spousal and family violence
- Evidence of the effectiveness of current treatments for sex offenders
- A descriptive profile of incarcerated sex offenders
- The impact of empathy training on offender treatment

Research on assessment issues

- Family violence risk assessment: Evaluating its importance
- Using psychological testing to predict institutional misconduct

Research on staff issues

- Remarkable rarity of violence toward staff in prisons
- The impact of violent acts on prison staff
- Victimization of case workers in corrections: Its extent and impact on clinical practice

Vol. 10 No. 3. (09-1998) Dynamic Factors

Research in Brief

- Offender needs — Providing the focus for our correctional interventions
- The Case Needs Review Project: Background and research strategy
- Using dynamic factors to better predict post-release outcome

Case Need Domains

- Employment
- Marital and family
- Associates and social interaction
- Substance abuse
- Substance abuse assessment review
- Community functioning
- Personal and emotional orientation
- Attitude

Overview

- Dynamic factors and recidivism: What have we learned from the Case Needs Review Project?

Vol. 10 No. 2. (05-1998) Corrections and Parole

Research in brief

- Have falling crime rates and increased use of probation reduced prison incarceration? — Some trends and comparisons
- Highlights in the history of day parole
- Profiling federal offenders on conditional release

Outcomes

- Reoffending rates for parolees and non-parolees: A five-year comparison
- Federal trends and outcomes in conditional release
- Day parole: Effects of the Corrections and Conditional Release Act
- Success rates of female offenders on discretionary versus statutory release: Substance abusers and non-abusers

Intervention

- Preparing reports for parole decisions: Making the best use of our information — and time
- Work Release Program: How it is used and for what purposes
- Forging a link between institutional and community-based treatment services

Perspectives

- Conditional release: A federal parole officer's perspective
- A Strategy for Community Corrections
- Community reactions to the new Prison for Women in Kitchener

Vol. 10 No. 1. (01-1998) Offender Reintegration

Research in brief

- Recent statistical trends shaping the corrections population in Canada
- Task Force on Reintegration of Offenders: A summary
- Understanding offender reintegration

Assessment

- Situating risk assessment in the reintegration potential framework
- Exploring reintegration potential: Impacts of initial placement practice
- Treatment responsiveness, intervention and reintegration: A conceptual model

Intervention

- Educating offenders
- Innovation in reintegration programming: Skills for Employment program

Perspectives

- A profile of federally sentenced women in the community: Addressing needs for successful reintegration
- Community supervision: Current practices and future directions

Research Summaries

- Offender risk/needs assessment: A study of conditional releases (R-01, 1989)
- Pilot implementation of a Custody Rating Scale: Interim report (R-02, 1989)
- Family violence review: Prevention and treatment of abusive behaviour (R-03, 1989)
- Validation of an adult offender classification system for Newfoundland and Labrador (R-04, 1989)
- Role of the Research Branch (R-05, 1989)
- Field test of the Community Risk/Needs Management Scale: A study of offenders on caseload (R-06, 1989)
- Effectiveness of the Cognitive Skills Training Program: From pilot to national implementation (R-07, 1991)
- Case Management Strategies survey (R-08, 1990)
- Development and validation of a psychological referral screening tool (R-09, 1990)
- Differences in response to long-term imprisonment: Implications for the management of long-term offenders (R-10, 1991)
- Patterns of alcohol and drug abuse among federal offenders as assessed by the Computerized Lifestyle Screening Instrument (R-11, 1991)
- Literature review on the factors related to escape from correctional institutions (R-12, 1991)
- Conditional release supervision standards: An update in training for offender risk/needs assessment (R-13, 1991)
- Persons with intellectual disability who are incarcerated for criminal offences: A literature review (R-14, 1991)
- Measuring performance towards Corporate Objective #1 (R-15, 1991)
- Evaluation of Correctional Service of Canada substance abuse programs (R-16, 1991)
- Dynamic and behavioural antecedents to recidivism: A retrospective analysis (R-17, 1991)
- Research on staff commitment: A discussion paper (R-18, 1990)
- Focusing on successful reintegration: Cognitive skills training for offenders (R-19, 1991)
- Background to the staff commitment research project (R-20, 1992)
- Staff commitment in the Correctional Service of Canada (R-21, 1992)
- Can educating adult offenders counteract recidivism? (R-22, 1992)
- Factors relating to unlawful walkaways from minimum security institutions (R-23, 1992)
- The prevalence, nature and severity of mental health problems among federal male inmates in Canadian penitentiaries (R-24, 1991)
- An analysis of temporary absences and the people who receive them (R-25, 1992)
- An assessment of the offender substance abuse pre-release program at Drumheller Institution (R-26, 1992)
- Unlawful departures from minimum security institutions: A comparative investigation (R-27, 1992)
- An historical review of the role and practice of psychology in the field of corrections (R-28, 1992)
- Preliminary results of the national sex offender census (R-29, 1991)
- An examination of sex offender case histories in federal corrections (R-30, 1993)
- Survival time until suspension for sex offenders on conditional release (R-31, 1993)
- Insights into innovative correctional industry: A case study of CORCAN at Warkworth Institution (R-32, 1993)
- The prison careers of offenders with mental disorders (R-33, 1994)
- The validity of offender needs identification and analysis in community corrections (R-34, 1993)
- The Native offender substance abuse pretreatment program: Intermediate measures of program effectiveness (R-35, 1994)
- Northern Aboriginal offenders in federal custody: A profile (R-36, 1994)
- Native offender substance abuse assessment: The Computerized Lifestyle Assessment Instrument (R-37, 1994)
- Treating violent offenders: A review of current practices (R-38, 1994)
- Managing high risk offenders: A post-detention follow-up (R-39, 1995)
- The Offender Substance Abuse Prerelease program: Analysis of intermediate and postrelease outcomes (R-40, 1995)
- The impact of cognitive skills training on postrelease recidivism among Canadian federal offenders (R-41, 1995)
- Persistently violent (non-sexual) offenders: A program. proposal (R-42, 1995)
- Prison work programs and postrelease outcome: A preliminary investigation (R-43, 1996)
- Attitudes of federal correctional officers towards offenders (R-44, 1996)
- Inmates referred for detention (1989 to 1993-94): A comparative analysis (R-45, 1996)
- Female offenders with and without major mental health problems: A comparative investigation (R-46, 1996)

- An operational review of the Custody Rating Scale: Reliability, validity and practical utility (R-47, 1996)
- Sex offender assessment, treatment and recidivism: A literature review (R-48, 1996)
- Factors related to recidivism among released federal sex offenders (R-49, 1996)
- High risk violent offenders in Canada (R-50, 1996)
- Temporary absence program participation and the release of federal offenders (R-51, 1996)
- Day parole program review: Case management predictors of outcome (R-52, 1996)
- Maximum security female and male federal offenders: A comparison (R-53, 1997)
- Treatment readiness and responsivity: Contributing to effective correctional programming (R-54, 1997)
- An examination of medium and maximum security federally sentenced female offenders (R-55, 1997)

Vol. 9 No. 2. (05-1997) Violent Offenders

Research in brief

- Violent crime trends in Canada since 1983
- Profiling federal offenders with violent offences
- Comparing violent and non-violent female offenders on risk and need
- Detention: Is it meeting its goal?
- Women who have committed homicide
- Women offenders convicted of robbery and assault

Assessment and programming

- Evaluating the Computerized Item Management System (CIMS) with violent offenders
- Treatment programs for offenders with violent histories: A national survey
- Motivating treatment-resistant clients in therapy
- Treatment and violent offenders: Reducing the risk to reoffend
- Follow-up of offenders from the Vancouver District Violent Offender Program

Feature articles

- An inmate survey: A profile of violent and non-violent offenders
- When risks become reality: Messages for practitioners and researchers from national investigations

Vol. 9 No. 1. (01-1997) Offender Classification

Research in brief

- Yes, SIR! A stable risk prediction tool
- The Community Risk/Needs Management Scale: An effective supervision tool
- Tried and true: Proof that the Custody Rating Scale is still reliable and valid
- Classification for correctional programming: The Offender Intake Assessment (OIA) process
- Risk classification for young offenders

Perspectives

- Research to practice: Applying risk/needs assessment to offender classification
- Implementing risk and needs classification in the Correctional Service of Canada
- Classifying female offenders for correctional interventions

Feature articles

- Do we need theory for offender risk assessment?
- Correctional classification and the "responsivity principle"
- Psychological intake assessment: Contributing to contemporary offender classification
- Legal aspects of inmates' security classification

Vol. 8 No. 3. (09-1996) Effective Correctional Programming

Research in brief

- Reducing recidivism through institutional treatment programs
- Factors influencing the effectiveness of cognitive skills training
- Intensive programming for violent offenders: A comparative investigation
- Effective sex offender treatment: The Warkworth Sexual Behaviour Clinic
- The Cyrano Method: Using theatre in offender treatment
- Gradual release programs: Day parole performance and subsequent release outcome

Perspectives

- Offender programming: An institutional perspective
- Looking back at 25 years of offender programming
- Catch-22: What psychological staff can (and cannot) do for offenders after their sentence expires
- The Auditor General of Canada's report on Correctional Service of Canada offender programs

Feature articles

- Effective correctional programming: What empirical research tells us and what it doesn't
- Principles of effective correctional programming
- Criminal recidivism is predictable and can be influenced: An update
- Strategies for enhancing the treatment of violent offenders
- Factors associated with successful reintegration of Aboriginal offenders into the community

Vol. 8 No. 2. (05-1996) Managing Sex Offenders

Research in brief

- Profiling the Canadian federal sex offender population
- A profile of Aboriginal sex offenders in Canadian federal custody
- Sex offender risk predictors: A summary of research results
- Improving prediction of sex offender recidivism: A proposed study
- Mental health and psychosexual disorders among federal sex offenders

Assessment and programming

- Millhaven's specialized sex offender intake assessment: A preliminary evaluation
- Sex offender recidivism prediction
- Characteristics of sexual assaults on female prison staff
- An innovative treatment approach for incestuous fathers
- Sex offender treatment priority: An illustration of the risk/need principle

Feature articles

- A national strategy for managing sex offenders
- Applying the risk principle to sex offender treatment
- Female sex offenders: A literature review
- Managing sex offenders: Some thoughts and suggestions

Vol. 8 No. 1. (01-1996) Employing Offenders

Research in brief

- A tough labour market for the young
- Industry in Canadian federal prisons: Glimpses into history
- Unemployment and population aging: Contradictory trends affecting penitentiary populations
- The effect of prison employment and vocational/ apprenticeship training on long-term recidivism
- CORCAN participation and post-release recidivism
- Inmate employment: The increasingly influential role of generic work skills
- An inmate's research: Insights on receiving a college education while incarcerated

Assessment and programming

- Targeting employment patterns to reduce offender risk and need
- Employability: From research to practice
- Generic and employability skills for inmates
- Employability in practice

Feature articles

- Offenders and work in the Correctional Service of Canada: A historical evolution
- Prison industry programs and inmate institutional behaviour
- Public and private sector partnerships in prison industries and offender employment
- The basic principles and characteristics of correctional adult basic education
- Work releases: A constructive step forward

Vol. 7 No. 3. (09-1995) Offender Treatability

- The Correctional Research and Development Sector of the Correctional Service of Canada

Research in brief

- Offender motivation for treatment as a responsivity factor
- Factors influencing the outcome of offender substance abuse treatment
- The impact of time served and custody level on offender attitudes
- Correctional work supervisor leadership and credibility: Their influence on offender work motivation
- The learning modes of an incarcerated population

Assessment and programming

- The impact of learning disabilities on correctional treatment
- Treatment responsivity in criminal psychopaths
- Forensic mental health treatment: Do we really know what we are talking about?
- Treating intellectually disabled sex offenders

Feature articles

- The responsivity principle and offender rehabilitation
- Predicting treatment response in correctional settings
- Offender responsivity to intensive supervision
- The legal right of offenders to refuse treatment

Vol. 7 No. 2. (05-1995) The Family Side of Corrections

Research in brief

- A descriptive comparison of demographic and family characteristics of the Canadian and offender populations
- Does getting married reduce the likelihood of criminality?
- Parents' experiences when their sons sexually offend: A qualitative analysis
- Family violence in the lives of Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal offenders
- Federal offender family violence: Estimates from a national file review study

Assessment and programming

- Using familial factors to assess offender risk and need
- Offenders learning to be better parents
- In the best interest of the child: The mother—child program
- Narrative therapy with incarcerated teenagers and their families

Feature articles

- A network of support for offender families
- Incarcerated fathers: A research agenda
- Behavioural problems in the children of incarcerated parents
- The impact of working rotating shifts on the family life of correctional staff

Vol. 7 No. 1. (01-1995) Young Offenders and Corrections

Research in brief

- Buyer beware: A consumer's guide to reading and understanding correctional research (Part III)
- Questions and answers on youth and justice
- In the shadow of the Young Offenders Act: Youths admitted into federal custody since 1978-1979
- Early substance use and its impact on adult offender alcohol and drug problems
- Young sex offenders: A comparison with a control group of non-sex offenders
- Psychopathy and young offenders: Rates of childhood maltreatment

Assessment and programming

- The Youth Management Assessment: Assessment of young offenders at risk of serious reoffending
- Secure detention and short-term custody youth centres: A social service perspective
- Correctional psychology with young offenders in the community: Philosophical musings
- The psychology of criminal conduct and principles of effective prevention and rehabilitation

Feature articles

- The Young Offenders Act in review: A more than modest proposal for change
- Canada's youth justice system — under review

- Young offenders: A correctional policy perspective
- Bill C-37 to amend the Young Offenders Act: Implications for the Correctional Service of Canada

Vol. 6 No. 3. (09-1994) Enhancing Community Corrections

Research in brief

- Community residential centres in Quebec: A tripartite agreement
- The benefits of the tripartite agreement
- The demographic characteristics of offenders on day parole
- Sex offenders and their survival time on conditional release
- Offender needs identification and analysis in community corrections

Assessment and programming

- An improved risk-assessment process: Ontario Region's Community Offender Management Strategy
- Learning to better predict the future: National Parole Board risk-assessment training
- Community-based treatment of aboriginal sex offenders: Facing realities and exploring possibilities

Feature articles

- Conditional release supervision standards revisited: An examination of compliance in Ontario Region
- Putting the "community" into community corrections
- Bridging jurisdictional gaps: The Federation of Canadian Municipalities and corrections
- Citizens' Advisory Committees: Allowing communities to hear and be heard
- Creating choices through community consultation and partnerships: The site-selection process for the Edmonton federally sentenced women's facility
- Just punishment? HIV infection and AIDS in correctional facilities

Legal perspectives

- The impact of the Corrections and Conditional Release Act on community corrections

Vol. 6 No. 2. (05-1994) Special Needs Offenders

Research in brief

- Buyer beware: A consumer's guide to reading and understanding correctional research (Part II)
- Raising awareness of persons with disabilities in Canadian federal corrections
- Older offenders in the Correctional Service of Canada
- The effects of neuropsychological impairment on offender performance in substance abuse treatment

Feature articles

- Under-identification of hearing loss in the Canadian federal inmate population
- Rating the accessibility of Ontario's federal institutions to people in wheelchairs
- Issues relevant to correctional staff with disabilities

Assessment and programming

- A centralized approach to managing special needs offenders
- Training staff to work with special needs offenders
- Incarceration alternatives: A special unit for elderly offenders and offenders with disabilities

Legal perspectives

- Designing for offenders with disabilities: An architectural perspective
- The legal context of accessibility issues
- Making Correctional Service of Canada facilities accessible
- Improving access to the criminal justice system through legislative change

Vol. 6 No. 1. (01--1994) Women in Prison

Historical context

- It's about time: The legal context of policy changes for female offenders
- Unintended consequences of feminism and prison reform

Current developments

- Redesigning corrections for federally sentenced women in Canada

What do we know?

- Women in prison: A literature review

- Creating real choices: A program evaluation of therapeutic services at the Prison for Women
- Some comparisons of female and male serious offenders
- Correlates of delinquency: A look at gender differences

Assessment and programming

- The psychological assessment of women in prison
- Opening the window on a very dark day: A program evaluation of the Peer Support Team at the Kingston Prison for Women
- Women and fraud: Results of a program at the Prison for Women

What do the women say?

- The realities of life imprisonment for women convicted of murder
- Women working in a men's jail

Vol. 5 No. 3. (09-1993) Recidivism

Research in Brief

- Buyer Beware: A Consumer's Guide to Reading and Understanding Correctional Research
- The Life Span of Criminal Behaviour: What Do We Know?
- Aboriginal Recidivists
- Examining the Unexamined: Recidivism Among Female Offenders
- Recidivists Tend to Be...
- Conditional Release and Offenders with Mental Disorders
- Recidivism Among Walkaways While at Large

Feature Article

- So You Want to Know the Recidivism Rate
- Expanding the Recidivism Inquiry: A Look at Dynamic Factors
- Does "Punishing Smarter" Work? An Assessment of the New Generation of Alternative Sanctions in Probation
- Recidivism: How Inmates See It

Legal Perspectives

- Recent Court Decisions

Vol. 5 No. 2. (05-1993) Managing Risk in Corrections

Research in Brief

- How Do Experts Make Parole Recommendations and Are They Accurate?
- Evaluation of the Independent Chairpersons Program
- When Are Sex Offenders at Risk for Reoffending? Results of Two Long-Term Follow-Up Studies
- I'm in Love with My Thesaurus

Feature Articles

- Managing Risk — Whose Problem Is It Anyway?
- Where Are We in Our Ability to Assess Risk?
- Risk Management: The Views of the Public and the Challenge to Corrections
- Decision Issues in Risk Assessment
- Risk Markers for Family Violence in a Federally Incarcerated Population
- Intensive Supervision of Offenders on Pre-release Furlough: An Evaluation of the Vermont Experience
- The Probation Evaluation Project
- Supervise Whom? Disciplinary Offences Committed by Incarcerated Persons

Legal Perspectives

- Urinalysis in Risk Management

Publications by the Research and Statistics Branch 41

Vol. 5 No. 1. (01-1993) Special Issue : Various Themes

Research on Offender Programming Issues

- Anger Management in the Prison: An Evaluation

- Anger Management Program Outcomes
- The Abusive Relationships Inventory: Preliminary Findings
- Offender Typologies: Identifying Treatment-Relevant Personality Characteristics
- Pathways to Desistence: How Does Criminal Activity Stop?

Research on Staff Issues

- The Life Expectancy of Correctional Service of Canada Employees
- How Forensic Mental Health Staff Cope: Results of a Preliminary Study
- The Prison Survey: A Customer View of Scottish Prisons

Research on Management Issues

- The Issue of Suicide in Canadian Federal Penitentiaries
- The Readability of Inmate Handbooks
- Profile of the Community Residential Facility Resident
- AIDS Knowledge Among Prisoners

Research Across the Correctional Service of Canada

Vol. 4 No. 3. (09-1992) Prison Violence and Inmate Suicide and Self-Injury

Research in Brief

- Violence and Suicide in Canadian Institutions: Some Recent Statistics
- Inmate Suicide: What Do We Know?
- National Strategy for the Prevention of Suicide and the Reduction of Self-Injury
- Investigating Suicide
- Institutional Violence: How Do Inmates Respond?
- Special Handling Units

Feature Articles

- Self-Directed Violence: Differentiating Between Suicidal, Malingering and Self-Mutilating Behaviours
- A Study of 133 Suicides Among Canadian Federal Prisoners
- Evaluating Suicide Prevention Activities
- Prison Violence: A Scottish Perspective
- Prison Victimization and the Informal Rules of Social Control

Legal Perspectives

- The Question of Liability in Inmate Suicides

Vol. 4 No. 2. (06-1992) Long-Term Offenders

Research in Brief

- Long-Term Offenders: Who Are They and Where Are They?
- Recidivism among Homicide Offenders
- Problems Associated with Long-Term Incarceration
- How Does Long-Term Imprisonment Affect People?
- Judicial Review: How Does It Work and How Does It Affect Federal Corrections?
- Alcohol and Drug Use, Homicide and Mental Illness: A Preliminary Retrospective Study

Feature Articles

- Long-Term Incarceration: Issues of Science, Policy and Correctional Practice
- Remarks on the Report of the Task Force on Long-Term Sentences

We Say ...

- Selected Quotes from Our Staff on the Management of Long-Term Offenders

Views and Reviews

- Do the Best We Can
- Dynamic Management: Two-Way Dialogue

Programming Focus

- The Life Line Project
- The Life Line In-Reach Program
- The Challenge of Managing Long-Term Inmates in Minimum-Security Institutions

- "Choices" at Atlantic Institution

International Perspective

- The Management and Review of Life-Sentence Prisoners in England and Wales

Legal Perspectives

- Selected Legal Aspects of Effective Correctional Programming: Access to Programming and Mandatory Programming

Vol. 4 No. 1. (03-1992) Focus on Staff

Research in Brief

- The Challenge of Balancing Work and Family
- Employment Equity: A Focus on the Correctional Service of Canada
- Shift Work and Its Impact on Human Performance
- Stress and Burnout
- Not Stressed Enough?
- What Do Correctional Officers Think of Sex Offenders?
- Training Staff to Deal More Effectively with Sex Offenders

Feature Articles

- Commitment, Attitudes, Career Aspirations and Work Stress: The Experience of Correctional Staff
- Some Responses to the Staff Commitment Study

Views and Reviews

- Gender Balance

Management Focus

- Studying Senior Managers' Career Paths
- Exposure to Critical Incidents: What Are the Effects on Canadian Correctional Officers?
- Workshop for Women in the Correctional Service of Canada

International Perspective

- The Impact of Tenure and Status on Staff Perceptions of the Work Environment in U.S. Federal Prisons

Vol. 3 No. 4. (12-1991) Sex Offender Programming

Articles

- Everything You Wanted to Know about Canadian Federal Sex Offenders and More ...
- Managing and Treating Sex Offenders: Matching Risk and Needs with Programming 7
- The Value of Community Treatment Programs for Released Sex Offenders 12
- Community-based Treatment for Sex Offender Programs: Recent Initiatives in the Ontario Region
- Relapse Prevention with Sexual Aggressors
- A Summary of an Evaluation of the Community Sex Offender Program in the Pacific Region
- Denial and Minimization among Sex Offenders: Assessment and Treatment Outcome
- A Description of the Westmorland Sex Offender Program with a Focus on Treatment Concerns and Research
- The Nova Scotia Sexual Behaviour Clinic: Evaluation, 1 September 1990 — 31 March 1991

Vol. 3 No. 3. (09-1991) Early Indicators of Future Delinquency

Research in Brief

- "Canonical Correlations" and Other Mystifying Research Terms
- The Cycle of Violence: Is There Evidence?
- Early Indicators: How Early, and What Indicators?
- An Integrated Model for the Prevention of Emotional and Behavioural Problems
- Substance Use by Adolescents and Subsequent Adult Criminal Activity
- Is There a Link Between Health and Later Criminality?
- Peer Delinquency, Attachment to Friends and Deviant Behaviour
- Testing Some Aspects of Control Theory with Female Delinquents and Non-Delinquents

Feature Articles

- A Profile of the Young Offender
- Risk Factors and the Development of Disruptive and Antisocial Behaviour in Children
- Violent Boys: Development and Prevention

Views and Reviews

- The Class/Crime Debate

Legal Perspectives

- Update on Public Service Alliance of Canada v. Attorney General of Canada and Econosult
- Recent Legal Developments

International Overview

- The U.S. Bureau of Prisons Office of Research and Evaluation — Attempting to Link Research and Practice

Significant Events

Survey

- How Can We Improve Our Magazine?

Vol. 3 No. 2. (06-1991) Institutional Design and Correctional Environments

Research in Brief

- An Historical Overview of the Construction of Canadian Federal Prisons
- A Snapshot of the Correctional Service of Canada's Institutions
- Direct versus Indirect Supervision in Correctional Institutions
- The Impact of Correctional Environments on Older Inmates
- Royal Institute of British Architects Makes Recommendations for Research on Prison Design

Feature Articles

- A Psychological Perspective on the New Design Concepts for William Head Institution (British Columbia)
- Personal Space and Privacy: Implications for Correctional Institutions

Management Focus

- Architecture, Operations and Change
- The Design Continuum: An Operational Manager's Perspective

Legal Perspectives

- Reasonable Accommodation and the Rights of Persons with Disabilities

International Overview

- Democracy in Spain: New Prison Construction Philosophy
- South Australia's Cottages: A New Institutional Design Concept
- Sweden's Local Institutions
- New Prisons Built as a Partial Response to an Increase in Crime in the Netherlands

Research Across the Correctional Service of Canada

Vol. 3 No. 1. (03-1991) Correctional Education

Research in Brief

- Education and Recidivism
- Adult Basic Education: Can It Help Reduce Recidivism?
- Self-Reported Needs of Native Offenders: A Focus on Education
- Educational Programming in Special Handling Units
- Correctional Educators' Perceptions of Their Work
- Characteristics of Offenders Participating in Academic Education Programs
- Effects of Education on Self-Esteem, Social Competence, and Self-Efficacy
- Vocational Education in New South Wales: Its Usefulness to Parolees

Feature Article

- Literacy Training and Reintegration of Offenders

Management Focus

- Where Is the Correctional Service of Canada Taking Correctional Education?
- Staff Development and the Formation of Curriculum in Prison Education

Legal Perspectives

- Contract Teachers in Federal Institutions: Can They Be Legally Considered Federal Government Employees? The Queen v. Public Service Alliance of Canada and Econosult Inc.

International Overview

- Education in Australian Prisons

Significant Events

Vol. 2 No. 4. (12-1990) Substance Abuse and Corrections

Research in Brief

- Findings from the National Alcohol and Other Drugs Survey
- A Profile of Drug Offenders
- Survey of Existing Substance-Abuse Programs
- Offenders in Drug-Abuse Treatment Programs
- Study Finds Attributions of Blame Differ Among Offender Types
- Therapeutic Communities: Self-Help Against Recidivism
- Assessing Offender Substance-Abuse Problems at Reception: Preliminary Findings from the Computerized Lifestyle Assessment Instrument
- A New Approach for Treating Substance-Abusing Offenders in Canadian Correctional Institutions
- The Correctional Service of Canada Accepts Recommendations from Substance-Abuse Task Force

Feature Article

- Effective Treatment for Drug and Alcohol Problems: What Do We Know?

Management Focus

- Employee Assistance Programs and Substance Abuse

Legal Perspectives

- Urinalysis: The Legal Viewpoint

International Overview

- A Swedish Substance-Abuse Program: Results of the Drug Misuser Treatment Program at the Österåker Prison

Significant Events

Vol. 2 No. 3. (09-1990) Mental Health Care in Correctional Settings

Research in Brief

- Correctional Staff Perceptions of Disordered Offenders
- Patients Held on Lieutenant Governor Warrants
- Outcome of Mental Health Treatment in Correctional Settings
- Study Stresses Co-ordination of Mental Health Services
- Understanding the "Disturbed Violent Offender"
- Pharmacotherapy
- Workshop on Psychopathy Highlights Need for Appropriate Intervention
- Reduction of Self-Injury: A Mental Health Priority
- A Five-Year Historical Profile of Canadian Regional Psychiatric Centres

Feature Article

- On the Willful Induction of Mental Disorder

Management Focus

- Dorchester Penitentiary
- Regional Treatment Centre (Ontario)
- Regional Psychiatric Centre (Prairies)
- Regional Psychiatric Centre (Pacific)

Legal Perspectives

- Release of Inmate Psychiatric Information

International Overview

- Mental Health Care in Correctional Settings in European Countries: France, Switzerland and Scandinavian Countries

Significant Events

Annotated Bibliography

Vol. 2 No. 2. (06-1990) Challenges Facing Community Corrections

Research in Brief

- Evaluation of Detention Provisions of Bill C-67
- Changing Attitudes of American Community Supervision Officers

- A Profile of Community Case Management Officers in Canada
- The Adult Criminal Careers of Training School Boys
- Employment Trends in Corrections

Feature Articles

- A Profile of Federal Community Corrections
- Challenges Facing Community Corrections in the Nineties
- Community Corrections and the NIMBY Syndrome

Management Focus

- Internal Audit: Serving Management Through the Mission

Legal Perspectives

- The Duty to Act Fairly in Penitentiaries

International Overview

- Parole in Japan
- Parole in England and Wales

Significant Events

Vol. 2 No. 1. (03-1990) On Corrections Research

Research In Brief

- Changing Criminal Thinking Patterns: Some Preliminary Findings from the Cognitive Skills Training Pilot
- Stress and Coping in Correctional Settings: Some New Research on Canadian Correctional Workers
- Stress Among British Prison Officers
- A Mental Health Profile of Federally Sentenced Offenders
- Do Media Events Affect Correctional Policy? Furlough Programs and the 1988 Presidential Campaign

Feature Articles

- Canadian Attitudes Toward Crime and Justice
- Public Support for Criminal Justice Policies: Some Specific Findings
- Public Opinion and Public Policy

Management Focus

- The Rejuvenation of the Public Service and the Mission of the Correctional Service of Canada: A Time to Grow
- Prairie Region Management Workshop: "Leadership and Change"

International Overview

- Public Attitudes Toward the Criminal Justice System in Five Countries: Canada, United States, Holland, Australia, and Great Britain

Regional Research Activities

Significant Events

Vol. 1 No. 2. (12-1989) Using Risk Assessments to Reduce Recidivism

Research in Brief

- What Does Type of Offence Tell Us About Recidivism? 3
- Increasing the Accuracy of Our Predictions of Recidivism: Offender Needs in the Community
- Female Offenders on Conditional Release: Who Gets Full Parole and Who Comes Back?
- Changes in the Profile of Minority Inmates
- Tracking Security Incidents in Institutions
- What Makes an Effective Correctional Officer? Views from Inmates and Staff
- Do Correctional Officers Support Rehabilitation?
- Menstruation and Crime: Is There a Link?
- Gender Differences in Prison Adjustment

Feature Articles

- Recidivism Is Predictable and Can Be Influenced: Using Risk Assessments to Reduce Recidivism
- The Statistical Information about Recidivism Scale: Some Reflections on Its Application
- Can Criminal Psychopaths Be Identified?

Management Focus

- The Challenge of Change

- Management: Perspectives on the Future

Legal Perspectives

- Recent Decisions
- Ipsa Facto
- Legal Implications of the "Riot Act" Proclamation

International Overview

- Australian Institute of Criminology and The Criminology Research Council

Significant Events

Vol. 1 No. 1. (09-1989) Research on Sex Offenders: What Do We Know?

Research in Brief

- Survey of Correctional Administrators ... Diversity of Qualifications and Background
- What is Most Stressful for Correctional Managers?
- Why do Correctional Officers Resign?
- How are Forensic Patients Managed by the Mental Health and Justice Systems?
- Research on Mentally-disordered Prisoners
- Use of Health Services by Offenders
- AIDS in Corrections
- Snitching in Swedish Prisons

Feature Article

- Research on Sex Offenders: What do we Know?

Management Focus

- All Work and No Play Isn't Even Good for Work: Finding the Fun at Work

Legal Perspectives

- Recent Legal Opinions
- Ipsa Facto
- Recent Decisions

International Overview

- The Role of the Home Office Research and Planning Unit

Research in the Correctional Service of Canada

New Publications

Significant Events