Introduction

Note: This directory is in large print to assist persons with visual disabilities.

Info Source: Directory of Federal Government Enquiry Points is intended for use by the public and by public service employees. It contains one section entitled “Federal Government Enquiry Points”.

Federal Government Enquiry Points This section lists addresses and phone numbers for federal departments and agencies. Other institutions associated with the federal government are included. Altogether, there are approximately 250 institutions listed.

Most entries include general enquiry and fax numbers. Some include numbers for Telecommunications Devices for the Hearing- and Speech-Impaired (TTY), communications and publications units, departmental libraries, personnel enquiries, general enquiry E-mail addresses and Internet sites.

To contact local or regional federal offices, consult the blue pages in your local telephone book.

Information on the Government of Canada

1 800 O-Canada

As the Government of Canada’s bilingual, toll-free service, 1 800 O-Canada provides general information and referrals for programs and services.

Canada Business Service Centres

Toll-free 1-888-576-4444
 Internet Site www.cbsc.org

There are presently 13 centres that provide bilingual, toll-free information related to business, starting a business or programs, services or regulations related to business. These Centres are able to answer both federal and provincial questions.

Canada Site

The Canada Site provides Internet users with a single electronic access point to general information about Canada, the federal government and its programs and services. The Canada Site features three gateways to quickly access information: Canadians, Canadian Business and Non-Canadians. These gateways organize content around the needs of users rather than by departmental responsibility.

About Info Source

In accordance with the Access to Information Act, Treasury Board is responsible for the annual creation and dissemination of a publication that provides a description of government organizations, program responsibilities and classes of records with sufficient clarity and detail to enable the public to exercise its rights under the Access to Information Act.

Treasury Board is also responsible for the annual publication of an index of personal information that will both serve to keep the public informed of how the government handles personal information, as well as facilitating the public's ability to exercise its rights under the Privacy Act. Treasury Board Secretariat fulfils these requirements through the annual publication of Info Source that is comprised of the following publications:

- Sources of Federal Government Information

This publication describes the organization and its information holdings

- Sources of Federal Employee Information

This publication lists the personal information banks containing information related to federal employees

- Directory of Federal Government Enquiry Points

This publication contains contact information for federal departments and agencies

- Access to Information Act and Privacy Bulletin

This publication contains summaries of federal court cases and statistics of requests made under the ATIA and PA.

Info Source is distributed to libraries, municipal offices and federal government offices across Canada.

Responsibilities of Individual Institutions

Government institutions are required to provide their information to Treasury Board Secretariat on an annual basis. This information is utilized in the production of the publications required by the Access to Information Act and Privacy Act. Consequently, each department and agency is responsible for the information it submits.
