POPULATION, TECHNOLOGY AND RESOURCES

SS22-1976-25 Paperback $2.00

Report No. 25. This report is addressed to the public in order to point out that Canadians must now discard some hitherto popular myths about Canada: namely, that its agricultural potential is more or less infinite, and that its resources and land area will always support a virtually open-door immigration policy. Looks at those issues related to the question of population size which have a scientific or technological component. Proposes certain measures to be adopted in the future. Index.

HOMICIDE IN CANADA — A STATISTICAL SYNOPSIS SC CS85-505

Paperbound $2.80

Presents a detailed factual picture of murder and manslaughter in this country and how our institutions respond to such occurrences. The study was undertaken to address such issues as what kinds of people commit homicide, under what circumstances, upon what kinds of victims; it also reveals how the criminal justice system deals with persons suspected of committing homicide. In addition to statistical information the study provides a review of the historical development of homicide law and a summary of current Canadian law as the context within which the statistics should be viewed. NON-OFFICIAL LANGUAGES – A STUDY IN CANADIAN MULTI-CULTURALISM SS
S42-7-1976 Paperbound $4.75

This study, which stresses the importance of language retention in the overall question of cultural retention, is based upon a large number of detailed and systematic interviews with representative samples of ten ethnic groups – the Chinese, Dutch, Germans, Greeks, Hungarians, Italians, Polish, Portuguese, Scandinavians and Ukrainians in five metropolitan areas of Canada (Montreal, Winnipeg, Toronto, Edmonton and Vancouver). It deals primarily with the extent of non-official language knowledge in the 10 groups, the use of those languages in a variety of social contexts and the degree of popular support for continued maintenance of these non-official languages in the five cities. Bibliography. Tables.

North

A finely produced periodical, lavishly illustrated with colour photographs and filled with a variety of articles about Canada's true north. The essays describe the life and people in the Arctic, ecological concerns, historical events, technological developments and Arctic arts and crafts. North is published every second month and contains both English and French articles. Subscription rates are $1.50 per copy or $6.00 per year in Canada and $1.80 per copy or $7.50 per year elsewhere.

North Nord

April/avril 1977 $150

International Perspectives

A journal of opinion on Canada's role in the world and on current international questions of interest to Canadians. A recent issue examined Canada's economic relations with the Arab world, the politics of Southeast Asia and Canadian foreign policy and immigration. Other issues have analyzed such topics as peacekeeping, law of the sea, external aid and military affairs. Will appeal to the interested layman and student of international affairs. Published bimonthly. Subscription rates are $1.00 per copy or $4.00 per year in Canada and $1.25 per copy or $5.00 per year elsewhere.
