Studies on Strict Liability

How strict do we want the criminal law to be? Strict enough to penalize anyone who breaks it, whether he knows he is breaking it or not? Or only strict enough to penalize those who break it knowingly? This book, prepared by the Commissioners and research staff of the Law Reform Commission of Canada, examines these basic questions. Wild Rivers: Saskatchewan

Wild rivers are a priceless part of our natural heritage and today many Canadians are retracing the river voyages of Canada's early explorers. However, a good deal of down-to-earth information about the rivers and their habits is needed before anyone can attempt to navigate them. It is for this reason that Parks Canada decided to carry out surveys of wild rivers all across the country. This is the first of a series of booklets being prepared to provide a practical guide for the experienced and well-equipped canoeist - the modern "voyageur". Illustrations. 66 pp.
