Annual report on the Privacy Act

1. Introduction

The Privacy Act gives Canadians the right to access personal information held by the government and protection of that information against unauthorized use and disclosure. Ministers and heads of agencies are responsible for ensuring that their organizations comply with privacy legislation. This report is prepared and tabled in Parliament in accordance with section 72 of the Privacy Act. It presents an overview of the Privacy Act activities carried out within the Committee during the reporting period of April 1, 2023, to March 31, 2024.

During the reporting period of April 1, 2023, to March 31, 2024, the Committee received eight (8) requests under the Privacy Act.

The Military Grievances External Review Committee (the Committee) is an independent administrative tribunal reporting to Parliament through the Minister of National Defence. It reviews all military grievances referred to it by the Chief of the Defence Staff (CDS), as stipulated at section 29.12 of the National Defence Act (NDA) and article 7.21 of the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Canadian Forces.

Section 29 of the NDA provides a statutory right for an officer or a non-commissioned member to grieve a decision, an act or an omission in the administration of the affairs of the Canadian Armed Forces (CAF). Since beginning operations in 2000, the Committee has acted as the external and independent component of the CAF grievance process. It also has the statutory obligation to deal with all matters as informally and expeditiously as the circumstances permit.

Following its review of referred military grievances, the Committee provides its findings and recommendations (F&R) reports to the CDS and the grievor. The CDS is the final decision-maker and is not bound by the Committee's F&Rs. In any case where the Committee's F&Rs are not accepted, the CDS must provide the reasoning in writing.

2. Organizational Structure

The Access to Information and Privacy (ATIP) Office is part of the Strategic Planning, Performance Measurement and Communications Services division. The division is made up of four employees, two of which dedicate an average 5% of their time to fulfill the Committee's obligations under both the Access to Information Act and the Privacy Act.

The ATIP Coordinator; the Director General of Corporate Services and Chief Financial Officer; and the Director General of Operations and General Counsel have delegated authority to oversee the administration of the Access to Information Act and the Privacy Act within the Committee and to ensure compliance with the legislation.

A description of the classes of institutional records held by the Committee is available online can be accessed online at Info Source – Sources of Federal Government and Employee Information - Canada.ca. The Committee does not have any exempt banks.

In accordance with the Privacy Act, members of the public may examine publications and other public documents governing the administration and operation of the Committee at:

The Committee uses the ATIP Online Request Service, designed and maintained by the Treasury Board of Canada, to process formal Personal Information requests.

3. Delegation Order

PRIVACY ACT

The Chairperson and Chief Executive Officer of the Military Grievances External Review Committee, pursuant to subsection 73(1) of the Privacy Act, delegates the persons holding the positions set out in the attached schedule, including persons designated to act in their absence, to exercise the powers, duties and functions of the Chairperson as the head of the Military Grievances External Review Committee, under the provisions of the Act and related Regulations set out in the attached schedule opposite each position.

This delegation replaces all previous designations.

4. Performance 2023-2024

During the reporting period of April 1, 2023, to March 31, 2024, the Committee received eight requests under the Privacy Act. These were all responded to within the legislated timelines, completed within one to 30 days. The number of requests received under the Privacy Act from April 1, 2023 to March 31, 2024 is lower than the previous reporting period (10 request in 2022-2023). No requests were carried forward from 2022-2023. During 2023-2024, the Committee received two consultation requests from one Government of Canada organization.

Please see Annex A for the Privacy Act Statistical Form.

5. Training and Awareness

The two ATIP Office employees continued to participate in ATIP-related courses offered by the Canada School of the Public Service and attend Treasury Board Secretariat info-blitz sessions during the reporting period. However, no awareness activities were provided within the organization during the reporting period.

6. Policies, Guidelines and Procedures

During the reporting period, the Committee did not implement any new institution-specific policies, guidelines, procedures, or initiatives related to privacy.

7. Initiatives and Projects to Improve Privacy

During fiscal 2023-2024, the Committee engaged a consultant to conduct a privacy impact assessment across the entire organization. While the assessment was conducted, the results, recommendations and implementation will take place in fiscal 2024-25.

8. Summary of Key Issues and Actions Taken on Complaints

No complaints were received or conducted during the reporting period.

9. Material Privacy Breaches

During this reporting period, the Committee incurred two material privacy breaches. Both involved the sharing of personal information and both were mitigated immediately, with insignificant impact on the individual parties. Reports were submitted to the Office of the Privacy Commissioner and Treasury Board Secretariat, as required.

10. Privacy Impact Assessments

During this reporting period, the Committee engaged a consultant to conduct a privacy impact assessment across the entire organization. While the assessment was conducted, the results, recommendations and implementation will take place in fiscal 2024-25.

11. Public Interest Disclosures

Paragraph 8(2)(m) of the Privacy Act allows the disclosure of personal information when the public interest clearly outweighs any invasion of privacy that could result from the disclosure or when the disclosure would benefit the individual to whom the information relates. There were no disclosures pursuant to paragraph 8(2)(m) for the 2023-2024 period.

12. Monitoring Compliance

Monitoring the time required to process requests under both Acts (Access to Information Act and Privacy Act) is done with the help of an internal excel spreadsheet that keeps track of all requests and deadlines. The ATIP Office reports delays on its activities to the Director General of Corporate Services and Chief Financial Officer. The Committee does limit inter-institutional consultation to only when required for the proper exercise of discretion, which is decided by the ATIP Coordinator. When the institution reviews frequently requested types of information, it does assess the feasibility of making that information available by other means, such as our website. In this case, the Director General of Corporate Services and Chief Financial Officer will consult the Deputy Head, as needed, to get their input and approval for making that information available. Lastly, the Committee ensures appropriate privacy protections are included in contracts, agreements and arrangements by ensuring these documents are reviewed by the

2023-2024 Annual Report on the Privacy Act

Director of Finance, Procurement and Administration and Deputy Chief Financial Officer, and as needed, the Director General of Corporate Services and Chief Financial Officer.
