1. Introduction

The Access to Information Act gives the public a broad right of access to information contained in federal government records, subject to certain limited and specific exceptions.

The RCMP External Review Committee's (ERC) 2024-2025 Access to Information Annual Report was prepared and tabled in Parliament in accordance with section 94 of the Access to Information Act. This report describes how the ERC administered the Access to Information Act throughout financial year 2024-2025.

The ERC did not have any non-operational ("paper") subsidiaries during this reporting period.

Mandate of the RCMP External Review Committee

Established in 1986 under Part II of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Act, the ERC contributes to fair and equitable labour relations and accountability within the RCMP through its independent and impartial review of appeal case files. The ERC issues findings and recommendations to the Commissioner of the RCMP for final decisions to be made in appeals regarding critically important matters (e.g. appeals of decisions in harassment complaints and of decisions to dismiss or demote an RCMP member for misconduct, to stop a member's pay and allowances when a member is suspended from duty or to discharge a member for medical or performance reasons). The RCMP is required to refer appeal case files to the ERC for its review, findings and recommendations pursuant to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Act and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Regulations. The ERC reports directly to Parliament through the Minister of Public Safety.

2. ERC's Organizational Structure To Fulfill Its Access To Information Act Responsibilities

Given the small size of the ERC (less than 30 FTEs) and the small number of requests it receives, all access to information functions are performed by the Director General of Corporate Services, and the Senior Officer, Corporate Services. The ERC has no regional offices. The ERC processes requests as follows:

- the requested information is identified;
- the requests are examined to determine if they should be transferred to another government institution with a "greater interest";
- possible exemptions are considered;
- a copy of the non-exempt information is prepared and forwarded to the requester with a transmittal letter; and,
- the requests and all related documentation are filed in the ERC's Access to Information and Privacy (ATIP) registry.

The ERC's proactive publication can be accessed on the Open Government Registry.

The ERC relies on existing Treasury Board guidelines regarding access to information.

The ERC has not entered into any service agreements under section 96 of the Access to Information Act during this reporting period.

ERC's Corporate Services are responsible for ensuring that all proactive publication requirements are met.

Public Reading Room

The Access to Information Act requires that institutions maintain a reading room where the public can review records that have been disclosed by the ERC over the past three years. Records are available for review at no charge. The ERC's public reading room is located in Ottawa and is open from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., Monday to Friday. Individuals who wish to review records must schedule an appointment with the ERC by contacting the generic email at corporateandhrservices-servicesgenerauxetrh@erc-cee.gc.ca. The ERC has sanitary procedures and protocols in place for the health and safety of its employees and individuals who wish to consult the disclosed records.

3. Delegation Order

The Minister of Public Safety Canada, pursuant to section 95 of the Access to Information Act, designates the Chairperson; the Director General of Corporate Services; the General Counsel and Director of Operations; Senior Director, Corporate Services; and the ATIP Coordinator of the ERC to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Minister as the head of a government institution (the RCMP External Review Committee) under certain sections of the Act. Responsibilities associated with the administration of the Access to Information Act include notifying applicants of extensions and transferring requests to other institutions (see Annex A, Delegation Order).

4. Performance 2024-2025

During fiscal year 2024-2025, the ERC received two (2) requests and completed the two (2) requests under the Access to Information Act in the reporting period. The disposition of these requests was:

Disposition of Request

Disposition	Number of Requests
All disclosed	0
Disclosed in part	0
All exempted	0
All excluded	0
No records exist	1
Request transferred	1
Request abandoned	0
Neither confirmed nor denied	0
Carried over to next reporting period	0
Declined to act with the approval of the Information Commissioner	0
Total	2

Disposition of Requests

Completion time for the two (2) requests was between 1 to 15 days. The ERC received one (1) request for which no records exist and one (1) request related to records that did not belong to them. The request was transferred to the department with control of those records. The ERC responded to 100% of requests within legislated timelines.

Number of active requests

As of the last day of the 2024-2025 reporting period, there were no active requests.

Number of active complaints

As of the end of the 2024-2025 reporting period, there were no active complaints.

Percentage of completed requests for which records were “all disclosed”, and percentage for which records were “disclosed in part”

As of the end of the 2024-2025 reporting period, the ERC had no requests for which records were “all disclosed” or “disclosed in part”.

Source of Requests

Of the two (2) requests received during the reporting period, all were received from the public.

Consultations from Other Institutions

During the reporting period, the ERC received one (1) consultation regarding a formal request received by other government organizations and institutions. In the consultation request, the ERC disclosed entirely the requested information under the Access to Information Act.

Informal Processes

Whenever possible, information is provided informally to the public by ERC employees. Additionally, the ERC's website serves as a valuable source of information on the ERC program, including annual reports to Parliament and financial information. Given the sensitivity of much of the information in the RCMP internal files that are referred to the ERC, there are limited opportunities to disclose other program information informally.

There was no informal request made during the reporting period.

Other Consultations

There were no consultations on Cabinet Confidences under the Access to Information Act.

For additional information, please refer to Annex B and Annex C for statistical report on Access to Information Act requests processed by the ERC between April 1, 2024, and March 31, 2025.

Multi-Year Trends

Evaluation of multi-year trends is difficult given the very small number of requests received each year by the ERC. The number and types of requests and consultations dealt with by the ERC in 2024-2025 were typical of and generally consistent with previous years. Over the past five (5) years, the ERC received and completed on average 9.8 requests per year (see Figure below).

5. Training and Awareness

Although no formal access to information training was provided to ERC staff, during 2024-2025, 100% of employees completed the ERC's mandatory training on Access to Information and Privacy offered by the Canada School of Public Service. Additionally, some ERC legal counsels have legal training in ATIP matters as the assessment of some requests may require legal analysis or advice.

Information about the Access to Information Act is routinely circulated to ERC staff in the course of normal operations.

6. Policies, Guidelines and Procedures

The ERC did not implement any new or revised access to information-related policies, guidelines or procedures during the reporting period.

7. Initiatives and Projects to Improve Access to Information

The ERC did not implement any new or revised access to information-related initiatives and projects to improve access to information during the reporting period.

8. Summary of Key Issues and Actions taken on Complaints or Audits

The ERC received no complaints during the reporting period from the Office of the Information Commissioner regarding access to information files and no audits or investigations were concluded.

There were no applications/appeals to the Federal Court in respect of access to information files received by the ERC for fiscal year 2024-2025.

9. Proactive Publication under Part 2 of the ATIA

The ERC is a government institution listed under schedule I.1 of the Financial Administration Act.
