INTRODUCTORY REMARKS.

The informations and remarks made on the results of the first year's operation of this system of statistical recording of deaths apply equally to the proceedings of the year 1884, the returns of which are compiled and tabulated in this present volume.

The eleven cities first invited to put the system into execution, have sent their returns for the whole year 1884, with the exception of Victoria, British Columbia, which, so far, has not joined her sister cities. There were only six returns covering the whole year 1883, there are ten for the year 1884: Quebec entered the organization since January 1884, and the cities of Winnipeg, Charlottetown and Fredericton, which had sent only partial returns for 1883, have forwarded reports for every month of the year now accounted for.

The warning, given in the introduction of the last report, is equally necessary as regards the returns for the year 1884:—It was said, "Of the returns which form the matter of this volume, some come up to that standard of accuracy which it is possible to exact, others approximate it more or less closely, and others again are more or less far below it."—The applicability of this remark cannot fail to strike a statist taking the trouble to submit the returns to the control of statistical criticism.

The difficulties are very great in some localities, but unless they are surmounted the value of these statistics, so far as the places where the defects occur are concerned, will evidently remain lessened in ratio of the extent of these defects. The critical examination of the details, as shown by the ratios of deaths by ages, indicates very plainly that the omissions, where there are such, bear principally on the infantile mortality, which, as a matter of fact, is necessarily great in Canada, on account of a large natality and owing to other circumstances which are factors in its production.

REMARQUES PRÉLIMINAIRES.

Les informations et les remarques relatives aux résultats des opérations de la première année de la mise en pratique de ce système de la statistique des décès s'appliquent également aux procédés de l'année 1884, dont les retours sont compilés dans ce volume.

Les onze villes qui ont d'abord été invitées à prendre part à l'exécution de ce système ont toutes fourni des rapports de l'année complète, à l'exception de Victoria, Colombie-Britannique, qui ne s'est point encore jointe aux autres. Il n'y avait que six rapports complets de l'année 1883, il y en a dix pour l'année 1884. Québec est entré dans l'organisation depuis Janvier 1884, et les villes de Winnipeg, Charlottetown et Frédéricton, qui n'avaient envoyé que des rapports partiels en 1883, en ont fourni qui couvrent toute l'année dont le présent rapport s'occupe.

Les réserves faites dans l'introduction du dernier rapport sont également nécessaires à l'égard des retours de 1884:—" Dans les rapports qui forment la matière de ce volume, disait-on, il y en a qui atteignent le degré d'exactitude qu'il est possible d'exiger, il y en a d'autres qui s'en approchent de plus ou moins près et d'autres qui s'en éloignent de plus ou moins loin."—L'à-propos de cette remarque ne peut manquer de frapper le statisticien qui se donnera la peine de contrôler les retours à la lumière de la critique statistique.

Les difficultés sont très grandes en certains lieux, mais à moins de les surmonter la valeur de cette statistique restera diminuée dans la mesure des défectuosités et pour les localités où ces défectuosités se rencontrent. L'examen critique des détails, tels que révélés par les chiffres proportionnels des décès par âges, démontre clairement que, là où il y a des déficits, les omissions portent principalement sur la mortalité des enfants; laquelle, en fait, est nécessairement grande en Canada, à cause du chiffre élevé de la natalité et à ceux d'autres circonstances qui entrent comme facteurs de cette mortalité.
